

Maitee Cueva '98 was recently promoted to Senior Vice President of Programming and Development at The Oprah Winfrey Network (OWN). She will be overseeing programming and development for the network's popular Saturday night programming as well as other content development initiatives. Maitee joined OWN in 2010 as the VP of Programming and Development. Before moving to OWN, she held several positions at MTV Networks.