

Millersville University Listserv for Educators of the Gifted
Gifted at MU.edu
Purpose and Guidelines

1. To provide a forum for all teachers, administrators, psychologists, counselors and university educators of the gifted to share ideas, teaching strategies, and sound instructional practices for challenging the gifted
2. To encourage collaboration between professionals in the design, development, and implementation of exemplary programs and classroom instructional activities.
3. To provide a network for educators to share and learn about gifted education professional development and growth opportunities.
4. To assist school professionals with suggestions for resources, materials, and procedures in development and implementation of gifted individualized programs.
5. No student names will be used to honor privacy issues and professional ethics.
6. Comments shared are to be limited to educational practices and procedures.
7. Private issues and responses are to be sent to individual list members not to the “reply all” option.

8. Products or comments expressed on this site do not constitute an endorsement by or reflect the opinions of the hosting organization.
