Graduate students may repeat an individual course only once for grade improvement. Transcripts will reflect grades each time the course is taken. Only the most recent grade will be counted in the cumulative GPA.

Repeat of courses for grade improvement may only be done twice during the student’s graduate career at Millersville University.