The Office of Global Education and Partnerships is seeking motivated students to join our office team. Targeted majors are Anthropology, Business, Communications, Government and Political Affairs, International Studies and Sociology. There are internship opportunities offered for both the fall and spring semesters, as well as the summer. The fall/spring/summer internship program provides the opportunity to earn 3 academic credits while working in the office an average of 15 hours per week.

Fall/Spring/Summer Internship Program

Job Description:
Interns will promote international education by coordinating special events and excursions for visiting international students and faculty; supporting outgoing students during the pre-departure phase and incoming exchange students during the pre-arrival phase; conducting international education-related research and assisting the Director and program coordinators with special projects as assigned; developing and updating informational materials; creating spreadsheets and collecting data for incoming and outgoing study abroad programs; and issuing International Student Identity Cards. In addition, Fall/Spring interns also promote study abroad by attending information sessions, open houses, and other campus events.

Qualifications:
Must be highly organized, possess ability to multi-task and to complete projects with attention to accuracy, along with having strong verbal and written communication and interpersonal skills. Proficiency with Word and Excel are required. Previous international experience is a plus but not required.

Internships at the Office of Global Education and Partnerships must be completed for academic credit. For more information, see the Office of Experiential Learning and Career Management in the Bedford House.

“Being an intern in the Office of Global Education has been an incredibly empowering experience for me. I have been able to work with some amazing mentors that have given me the confidence to not only study abroad but also to take control and make sound, intelligent, professional decisions.”

Rachel Witmer – Intern (International Studies Major/Spanish Minor)

“The reason I chose this internship was mainly due to the fact that I had just became a Spanish minor and I did not have any prior work experience in the international field. Being my first office job, I knew that if I interned with an office on Millersville’s campus, the people there would help to make the learning environment more enjoyable. Along with the office work, which will help me a ton when I go out into the real world, I also had the opportunity to speak and interact with peers from all over the world. One of my objectives while working here was to coordinate a program with the international exchange students and I got the chance to take them to an NBA game. This game was their first ever NBA game and they were more excited than I was. Just knowing that when they go back to their respective countries, they’re going to tell all their friends and family that Shanel took them to their first NBA game, to me, is worth more than the 3 credits.”

Shanel Knox – Intern (Communication Major/Spanish Minor)
