

M.A. History curriculum, Fa'23

REQUIRED COURSES:

HIST 520, Historiography and Methods	3 credits
Six 500-level seminars	18 credits
Two 600-level research seminars	6 credits
Thesis option:
Thesis	3 credits	OR
Non-thesis option:
1 600-level research seminar	3 credits
	30 credits

Sample of topical and thematic seminars (some offered infrequently, others offered in regular rotation)

- Foundations of Western Thought
- Comparative Migrations and Diasporas
- Environmental History
- Maritime Atlantic, 1453-1853
- The Holocaust
- The Second World War
- Era of the American Revolution
- Modern War, Terrorism, Revolution
- Music and Society
- British Imperialism
- Indians and Empires
- Piracy in the Early Modern World

Added to rotation of geographic and chronologic seminars traditionally offered

- HIST 501, 502, 503 – United States from Contact to Present
- HIST 505, 506, 507 – Europe 1500 to Present

Research seminars (600-level) will continue to be offered in US, World, and Regional histories.