Contact: David Lauver, Internship Supervisor
717-299-8161 or LauverD@co.lancaster.pa.us

Intern Requirements: Studying Sociology/Criminology, Social Work, or related field.

As an intern with Juvenile Probation you can expect to:

- Read The Juvenile Act and Juvenile Justice System Enhancement Strategy, as well as other materials
- Participate in New Court Employee Orientation Program
- Visit schools, detention-centers, out-of-home placements, home-visits
- Observe pre-court and intake interviews, as well as observe various other daily activities done by probation officers
- Observe Juvenile Court

Other:

- Interns are responsible for all their own expenses; parking, gas, food
- Interns need their own transportation
- Interns with flexible and open schedules will be able to observe more