Alumni Stay Connected

Mike Farrara ’78 and fellow MU alumni and teachers from the Industrial Arts/Tech Ed program started getting together in the Berks County area for a monthly breakfast (Dec. 2016) just to have fun, talk about life and the good old times from Osborn Hall. The group initially began with 3 alumni and now includes alumni from the 70’s.

Jeanette Knaub graduated from Millersville in 2001 with a BS in Marketing. As a wife and at-home mother of four, Jeanette knows the value of providing a broad range of educational and cultural experiences for her children. Taking extended trips as a family of six can be cost prohibitive, so she and her family opt to travel locally and day trips have become their way of satisfying their passion for travel. She takes great care to make sure each travel adventure enriches the learning experiences of her children. Living in Lancaster County, Jeanette focuses her visits in the Southeastern Pennsylvania area. After spending a number of years chaperoning her children to many destinations, Jeanette has acquired an extensive knowledge of the local tourism industry.

Not one to keep all these new-found secrets to herself, she wanted to find a way for others to benefit from her discoveries. The idea of writing her own blog came to mind and DayTripperMom.com was born shortly thereafter. Day Tripper Mom provides overall critiques, detailed stories and helpful tips to know before you head out to one of the destinations!

NOURISHING SEEDS OF FAITH is an interdenominational collection of mini-sermons that teach four-to-eight-year-olds about God and how God wants them to live. Fun activities and simple language that children understand show pastors, laity, and home-schoolers ways to attract children and hold their attention. Beginning with Advent, the messages follow the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Interspersed throughout the book are topics appropriate for seasonal and secular holidays as well. Each five- to ten-minute sermon includes its theme, Scripture reference, preparation tips, and a prayer. “Stretching Further” presents ideas for extending the teaching and involvement of the listeners.
