Marauder Connections

Jazz & Java - Saturday April 18, 2015 @ 7:30PM
Lehr Dining Room at Gordinier Hall, Millersville University

Join us for this popular annual cabaret event where the MU Jazz Band will have the unique opportunity to perform with England’s Frank Griffith - saxophonist and clarinetist. Born in Eugene, Oregon in 1959, Frank lived in New York City from 1980-1995. While there he worked with Ron Carter, Jon Hendricks and Jack McDuff and played lead alto with the Glenn Miller Orchestra for a nationwide tour in 1984. He has also worked with the orchestras of Toshiko Akiyoshi, Mel Lewis, Buddy Rich and Mel Torme. He is currently Director of Performance at Brunel University, London.

Admission to the event includes the Jazz Event, desserts and a coffee bar.
