Jenkins School Reunion 1970 -1978
Saturday, July 11, 2015
Gordinier Hall
Millersville University

Do you remember happy times spent at Jenkins School? The Elizabeth Jenkins Early Childhood Center was named after Elizabeth M. Jenkins, a teacher at the Millersville Laboratory School from 1948 to 1970. The Center was first developed to act as an educational aid for new teachers and early childhood educators. For 45 years, Jenkins served Millersville and its surrounding communities, crafting a high-quality early childhood curriculum and enriching the lives of hundreds of children and their families.

MU Baseball Head Coach, Jon Shehan, leads team to NCAA playoffs

Millersville coach, Jon Shehan '06, '13M, has led the Marauder baseball team to four PSAC Eastern Division Championships, a NCAA Atlantic Regional title, two 40-win seasons and three No. 1 seeds in NCAA regional play. He is the only coach in program history to lead a team to more than two regional appearances.

The Marauders’ thrilling and memorable season came to an end with a PSAC Championship and a fourth trip to the NCAA Atlantic Regional in five seasons. It was the program’s first conference tournament win since 1998 and the 45 wins tied a school record.
