

Philadelphia Urban Seminar 2010

- Pretty sure dates: May 17-29
- 9 full days in Philly schools with pretty much certain content area placements
- Trips to Art Museum, Constitution Center, Phillies game (I hope!), colonial Philadelphia, Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, Chinatown, various cultural and culinary sites in Philly.
- Weekend service projects at Norris Square Community Center and Germantown Beacon Center
- Sunday Service and community forum at Enon Tabernacle Baptist Church
- Professional Development meetings with community and education leaders from Philadelphia (teachers, administrators, politicians, students)
- Workshops with the Philadelphia Student Union, Mastery Charter Schools, and The University Community Collaborative of Philadelphia.
- Almost nightly seminar meetings (the highlight!)
- Focus on the work in schools, not on reading or classwork
- EDFN 398 counts as a Perspectives (GenEd P) course
- Cost is 3 credits plus between $500-700 at the maximum, hopefully less.
- For that, I provide housing and all transportation, tickets to all trips (maybe) and about 2/3 of your dinners in the cafeteria, plus one fancy dinner.
- Applications will be available in late January, due by mid-February.
- Contact Tim Mahoney (tim.mahoney@millersville.edu/871-7202) with questions.
