MONDAY, SEPT. 26

Morning

DROP OUT RATE

Why can’t we solve this problem?

Breakfast 7:30-9 a.m.

Stayer Hall, Multipurpose Room

Millersville University

A number of local superintendents join Lynda Becker, MSW, Youth Development Coordinator at Center for Schools and Communities, in a panel discussion on the dropout rate.

Afternoon

VOUCHERS BLOG

Will they be the golden ticket or our future albatross?

An insightful blog to be posted at Facebook.com/MillersvilleUniversitySchoolofEducation

Post your comments and keep the discussion going!

TUESDAY, SEPT. 27

Morning

INVITATIONS ONLY BY REQUEST

FOCUS GROUPS

Common issues in education

8-10 a.m. Binsu Room

The Ware Center

Millersville University Lancaster

42 North Prince St., Lancaster

Lancaster Chamber of Commerce will host a breakfast and focus group discussion on common educational issues for Lancaster County.

Afternoon

INVITATIONS ONLY BY REQUEST

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Who needs pre-school?

3-4:30 p.m. Steinman Hall

The Ware Center

Millersville University Lancaster

42 North Prince St., Lancaster

United Way of Lancaster County hosts Early Childhood Education – Who needs pre-school?

Evening

INVITATIONS ONLY BY REQUEST

BUDGETS

Local, state & federal equity issues

6:30 p.m. Atium

The Ware Center

Millersville University Lancaster

42 North Prince St., Lancaster

The Hourglass Foundation will host Budgets: Local, state and federal, a panel discussion on the issues with Pa. Secretary of Education Ron Tomalis.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 28

Morning

INNOVATION IN EDUCATION

New forms of teaching

7:30 a.m. Online Webcast

Dr. Oliver Dreon, assistant professor, educational foundations and director of the University's Digital Learning Studio, is joined by local teachers to discuss technologies for teaching and learning. This session will be webcast and available for online viewing at www.millersville.edu/academics/educ/education/EducationOnLocation.php.

Afternoon

INNOVATION IN EDUCATION

New forms of teaching

3:30 p.m. Online Webcast

A second session by Dr. Oliver Dreon and local teachers discussing technologies for teaching and learning. This session will be webcast and available for online viewing at www.millersville.edu/academics/educ/education/EducationOnLocation.php.

Evening

INNOVATION IN TEACHING

6 p.m. Lehr Room, Gordinier Hall

Millersville University

THURSDAY, SEPT. 29

Morning

STEM BLOG

Are we still lagging behind?

A blog entry to be posted at Facebook.com/MillersvilleUniversitySchoolofEducation

Post your comments and keep the discussion going!

Afternoon

INCLUSIVE CLASSROOM

What are we really talking about?

4-6 p.m. Stayer Hall, Multipurpose Room

Millersville University

A panel discussion with Dr. Ellen Long, assistant professor, special education, with local teachers and parents.

Evening

TOWN HALL MEETING: UNION ISSUES

Unions, tenure and teacher effectiveness

6:30-8 p.m. Stayer Hall, Multipurpose Room

Millersville University

A town hall meeting with PSEA President Michael Cossey, Superintendent of Eastern Lancaster County School District Dr. Robert Hollister, Superintendent of Penn Manor School District Dr. Michael Lechtlir, and a local teacher.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 30

Morning

INVITATIONS ONLY BY REQUEST

LEGISLATIVE BREAKFAST

Breakfast 7:30-9 a.m.

Atium

The Ware Center

Millersville University Lancaster

42 North Prince St., Lancaster

Millersville University School of Education and the Hourglass Foundation will host a legislative breakfast and panel discussion on educational issues.

Afternoon

TEACHER CERTIFICATION REGULATIONS

What helps, what doesn’t help? Lack of flexibility? Master’s degrees—Do they or don’t they make an impact? Is it worth saving the money?

A blog entry to be posted at Facebook.com/MillersvilleUniversitySchoolofEducation on teacher certification regulations. Post your comments and keep the discussion going!