III. Report of the Faculty Senate Chairperson

Faculty Senate Chair Börger-Greco conducted introductions to begin the new academic year and reminded senators that meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday of each month when classes are in session (summer meeting to be announced).

IV. Report of the Student Senate President

Student Senate President Darling reported on beginning the new school year, welcoming new senators, electing committee chairs, and charity efforts. She also noted upcoming plans for technology updates, elections for campus committee representatives, and a visit from Dr. McNairy to Student Senate.
VI. Report of the Administrative Officers

Provost

Provost Prabhu noted that Dr. McNairy was attending a president’s meeting in Harrisburg. Dr. Prabhu noted that the faculty convocation highlighted a few projects on campus and encouraged faculty to review the Narrative Assessment report for more extensive information about faculty accomplishments. He also indicated about 2000 new freshmen and transfer students are on campus. Dr. Prabhu introduced Mr. Hiram Martinez as the Interim Assistant to the President for Social Equity & Diversity.

Dr. Prabhu mentioned revisions to promotion guidelines and criteria that will go into effect for the cycle due November 1, 2010. He noted that APSCUF and Administration agree this will benefit faculty by allowing greater flexibility. Related documentation is available at the Provost’s website and questions can be directed to the Provost’s Office or Howard Ellis, President of APSCUF-MU.

Vice President for Student Affairs

Vice President Breaux commented on orientation and student convocation and noted clips and photos have been posted by Advancement. She thanked faculty for helping with various aspects of these efforts to help new students transition into the environment and culture of Millersville. Dr. Breaux noted that Resident Life programming is encouraging wellness on campus.

Dr. Breaux reported that SMC renovations are progressing and many offices will return to the new space in January. She encouraged faculty to attend talks by candidates for Associate VP of Student Affairs and noted that Art White is serving as Interim Chief of Police until a search is completed.

VII. Reports of the Faculty Senate Standing Committees

UCPRC

Senator Smith distributed a memo outlining guidelines for submitting academic proposals to UCPRC for the 2010-2011 year and noted new forms are being implemented. [see Attachment #1] She also expressed that UCPRC is trying to plan ahead with estimates from departments for how many proposals may be coming forward this year.
Educator of the Year Award Selection

Proposed cover letter, nomination form, and recommendation letter form for the Educator of the Year Award were distributed for review. [see Attachment #2] These were developed by the first committee chaired by Jesse Holden.

Re: Meeting schedule and deadlines for proposals, 2010-2011

Forms will be updated as needed throughout the semester. Please make sure to use the updated forms when beginning the process by checking:
http://www.millersville.edu/~fsenate/Forms/courseapproval.html  and/or http://www.millersville.edu/~gened/

We are currently working on completing the UCPRC website and having it go “live” – stay tuned.

General Information

• Please have page numbers on ALL proposals to facilitate discussions and presentations.

• In order to help this year’s proposal process go smoothly and to meet the schedule of the Senate, please see the schedule of UCPRC meetings for the 2010-2011 year on page 3.

• Please note that proposal delivery to UCPRC chair is the responsibility of the proposal representative. Depending on the type of proposal, there may be different requirements regarding what is sent. Please read the requests below carefully in order to facilitate the approval of your proposal(s) and minimize the amount of time spent on clarifications.

• All electronic documents for ALL types of proposals should be sent to the UCPRC mailbox:
  UCPRC@millersville.edu.

• All paper correspondence should be directed to the Chair of UCPRC, Carrie L. Smith, Sociology/Anthropology Department, Susquehanna House. If you have a logistical question that needs a quick response, it is best to send an email to carrie.smith@millersville.edu.

• Unless there are extenuating circumstances, all courses are considered in the order in which they are received. This can mean more than a month to get on the agenda of UCPRC. Please plan ahead.

• IMPORTANT NOTE: For ALL proposals, the original signed cover page of the proposal WITH original INK signatures MUST be received by Carrie L. Smith, SOCY/ANTH, UCPRC Chair PRIOR to any consideration or scheduled presentation.

• Proposers are responsible for following through on committee requests, providing proper documentation, and updating other members of their department, including department chairs and curriculum committees (as required).

General Directions for submitting electronic and paper copies of all proposals:
I. Academic Proposals, Course Proposals (including NEW courses seeking a W, P, or D label, EXISTING courses converting to DL format and EXISTING courses seeking a W, P, or D label)

- 15 paper copies (2-sided please) sent to Carrie L. Smith, SOCY/ANTH, UCPRC Chair, Susquehanna House.
- In addition, original copy of the proposal cover page WITH signatures sent to Carrie L. Smith, SOCY/ANTH, UCPRC Chair (proposals will NOT be placed on the committee agenda until the original copy with ink signatures has been received.)
  - WHEN approved by UCPRC – the original signature page will be signed and returned to the proposer. Any recommendations can then take place electronically.
  - An electronic version (.pdf only please) of the proposal will then need to be sent via email (including the scanned cover sheet WITH ALL signatures) needs to be sent to UCPRC@millersville.edu. You will also be asked to make an additional 6 paper copies of the entire proposal (2-sided please) that the department Senator must deliver to the Secretary and/or Chair of Senate.

II. W and P Recertifications (5 year cycle) (deadline for submission: December 1, 2010)

This is the process for courses that have ALREADY been approved with the appropriate Gen-Ed Label and are simply due for their 5 year recertification process. If this is a new course, then see I.

- An electronic version (.pdf only please) of the proposal via email to UCPRC@millersville.edu (including scanned cover sheet WITH prior signatures). Make sure that you attach a syllabus, and address all items on the evaluation form. Note that the P-recertification form will be shared online as soon as it is available.
- Original copy of proposal cover page WITH signatures sent to Carrie L. Smith, SOCY/ANTH, Susquehanna House, UCPRC Chair (proposals will NOT move on to subcommittees without the original copy.

III. FYI Seminars (deadline: December 1, 2010):

- 8 paper copies (2-sided please) sent to Carrie L. Smith, SOCY/ANTH, UCPRC Chair
- An electronic version (.pdf only please) of the proposal via email to UCPRC@millersville.edu (including scanned cover sheet WITH prior signatures). Make sure that you attach a syllabus, and address all items on the form.
- Original copy of proposal cover page WITH signatures sent to Carrie L. Smith, SOCY/ANTH, UCPRC Chair (proposals will NOT move on to a subcommittee without the original copy.)

Special Note: ALL course and program proposals that are intended to be in place for the Fall 2011 semester should follow the timeframe indicated below.
THE FOLLOWING PRESUMES THAT NO ADDITIONAL CHANGES OR REVISIONS ARE NEEDED ON THE PROPOSALS.

• Presentation to UCPRC no later than March 22nd 2011 (vote to occur on tentatively scheduled March 29th 2011 meeting or electronically).

• If approved by UCPRC,
  o 1st reading at Senate no later than April 5th, 2011.
  o 2nd reading and vote at Senate no later than April 19th, 2011.

• If not approved by UCPRC by March 29th 2011, the course or program proposal will not be able to be put into place for the Fall 2011 semester.
