

University Conduct Board - Administrative Appeal Hearing

The student or student organization has the right to an appeal if he/she denies responsibility of the violation or does not agree with the sanction(s) imposed. The appeal must be made in writing (Administrative Appeal Hearing Form) within five days of the Administrative hearing and delivered to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. The appeal will then be heard by the University Conduct Board.

I have read the above statement and wish to do the following:

- I deny responsibility for the violations.
- I wish to file an appeal of the sanction which I was given.
