The Four Color Theorem

Theorem: Any map in a plane can be colored using four-colors in such a way that regions sharing a common boundary (other than a single point) do not share the same color.

Instructions: First label each region (1 through 4). Be sure that regions that share boundaries have different numbers. Next pick four different colors for each number and color accordingly.
the Y Color Him.