Writing a Personal Vision Statement

Your personal vision statement captures what you want to be, do, feel, think, associate with, and impact by some date in the future. It is closely aligned with your most important, or core, values. Use the value identification exercise to guide you through this process. Think about your personal vision as a personal development strategy.

1. Based on my personal research, these are the main things that motivate me/bring me joy and satisfaction:

2. My greatest strengths/abilities/traits/things I do best:

3. At least two things I can start doing/do more often that use my strengths and bring me joy:

4. In 50 words or less, write your personal vision statement:

Examples:

- I am more physically fit, making good grades and life choices. I spend quality time with my family at least once a week.
- I will become a respected leader by guiding others through difficult situations.
- In 5 years, I will have graduated college with a strong GPA and have started employment with an organization that fosters my professional growth.
