ACADEMY FOR ADULT LEARNING

AAL Students:

- attend classes and explore career options based on their interests and goals
- participate in the wide variety of activities available to all Temple students
- are matched with a student mentor who supports the individual in accessing Temple University’s many resources

A four-semester program designed to give an authentic college experience to individuals with intellectual disabilities on Temple University’s main campus.

AAL offers an authentic learning experience where students:

- determine and direct the support they need
- select their own classes according to their interests
- enroll in a weekly seminar focusing on college life in addition to their academic courses
