

TIMELY WARNING

CAMPUS ALERT

7 November 2007

This communication is prepared as part of the Timely Warning requirement of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act of 1990. This federal law requires a general communication to the campus community of all crimes reported to campus and local police departments that may pose a threat to the campus community. Such reports shall be provided to students and employees in a manner that is timely and that may aid in the prevention of similar occurrences.

On 5 November 2007 at 8:10 PM a resident student reported to the University Police that they received threatening instant messages. The person that sent the messages supposedly hacked into the student's computer. The resident student does not know who sent the messages. It was thought to be a person playing a joke but during the investigation that has been ruled out. This incident is still under investigation.

Since the original report, University Police has not received a second report of this activity. University Police suggest the Campus Community to take precautions. The precautions are not to holding conversations with unfamiliar massagers. If threatening messages are sent to, please call University immediately, keep your cellular phone with you, and print all messages. Please program your cellular phone with the University Police emergency number 717.872.3911.

The purpose of this communication is to ask that any member of the campus community that may have any information about the massager to contact University Police at 872-3433.
