EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND ANTI-HARASSMENT

It is the policy of MU’s Office of Experiential Learning and Career Management (ELCM) to promote and maintain an environment free of all forms of discrimination, intimidation, and exploitation including sexual harassment.

ELCM affirms equal opportunity in hiring practices. Offers of employment are expected to be made without regard to disability, race, color, religion, sex, national origin or age.

In addition, ELCM sets forth the expectation that all participating employers will not harass any registrant or other employer in either an emotional, physical or sexual way.

Anyone who believes that he or she has been a victim of sexual harassment or discrimination, or believes that he or she has witnessed conduct that would constitute sexual harassment or discrimination, should report the matter immediately to one of the ELCM staff. The report should be made as soon as possible after the incident of alleged harassment or discrimination occurs; failure to report the matter promptly to one of the ELCM staff may hamper effective administration action.

REMINDERS TO CANDIDATES

1. Be sure your cell phone is TURNED OFF!

2. You must wear your name tag.

3. Expect to spend 5-10 minutes with each employer, but take your cues from the recruiter. Be sure to get the recruiter’s name and title for use in follow-up contact. Ask for their business card.

4. Many organizations require candidates to submit an online application as part of their selection process. Do not be discouraged if representatives direct you to their web page for this purpose. It is simply one more step in the process to secure employment with their organization.

5. If the waiting line to talk to a particular employer is too long, go to another employer and come back later.

6. Feel free to talk to employers who have not advertised for your major, stressing your qualifications for a job with that company. But do not be insulted if they tell you they are only interested in specific majors.

7. If you need assistance or have questions, come to the ELCM table at the entrance to Marauder Court and speak with an ELCM staff member or ask someone wearing an ELCM staff badge.

8. Follow-up with employers is extremely important. A thank you note should be sent within 48 hours to all employers that you spoke with at the Fair. Visit MU’s Office of Experiential Learning and Career Management if you need assistance.

9. WE WANT YOUR FEEDBACK! The ELCM office will email a short survey to you in the next few days. Please take time to complete the survey so that we may bring MU’s students the best employment opportunities we can.

Our staff is dedicated to ensuring that each student has an opportunity to reach his or her fullest potential. One way we do this is by treating the child’s behavior first, so they can focus on learning new skills and creating their own "new stories" for the present and the future. We believe no two children are alike, so we teach the way an individual child learns – and our curriculum reflects this approach. Teachers adapt and modify lessons to the student’s strengths and needs to encourage growth.

NISSIN FOODS
Nissin founder, Momofuku Ando, has always instilled a sense of commitment and quality in Nissin products. Today, Nissin's corporate philosophy inspires this same commitment to taste, convenience, and quality. Mr. Ando began the company as part of a humble family operation back in 1948. Faced with sparse food sources after World War II, Mr. Ando realized that a quality, convenient ramen product would help to feed the masses. His goal was to create a satisfying ramen that could be eaten anywhere, anytime. In 1958, Nissin introduced "Chicken Ramen", the first instant ramen. Ironically, it was considered a luxury item, since Japanese grocery stores sold fresh Japanese noodles (udon) at one-sixth the cost of Mr. Ando's new food concept. Still, Mr. Ando was convinced that his revolutionary new method of preparation would sell. The concept seemed simple enough. All users would have to do is simply remove the ramen from its package, place it in a bowl, add boiling water, cover the bowl, and wait three minutes. The conservative Japanese food industry, however, rejected the product as a novelty with no future. They had never been so wrong. Soon, Chicken Ramen was selling beyond even Mr. Ando's wildest expectations. Before you could say "instant", more than ten companies were rushing to put their own versions out on the market. By the end of 1958, grocery shelves were crowded with this new staple for the Japanese kitchen. From this point on, Nissin Foods began introduction of a long list of successful and innovative ramen products.

The OIG takes a two-pronged approach in the fight against welfare fraud by focusing on its Field Investigation and Fraud Investigation Programs.

PRIMA THEATRE
Our History
PRiMA began in 2010 with a group of passionate theatre professionals. Their aim was to create fresh performing arts experiences in Lancaster. It was to be something contagious, energetic and contemporary, shaking up the cultural status quo. Now the fastest growing performing arts organization in Lancaster, PRiMA is making a significant impact on the region's cultural vitality.

Executive Producer Mitch Nugent and his wife Diana founded PRiMA with the belief that the arts are at their best when they are culturally relevant and bent towards hope. The Nugents started by bringing together the region’s finest talent for benefit performances and cabarets. The community’s response was impressive, allowing PRiMA to raise substantial funds for local charities, all while performing in crowded venues like Prince Street Cafe. PRiMA was stamped as ‘on the scene’ in 2011 with productions like Chess in Concert, and has since produced main-stage shows, concerts, cabarets and special events. Notable performances include a celebration of songs in minor keys in the round at a local historic grand banking hall, an 80’s music celebration performance at a rock club and Elton John’s AIDA with a 75 person choir and multi-cultural cast. Throughout PRiMA’s history and still true today, team members are united around the vision to enrich lives by creating beautiful experiences.

The company is known for its innovation, not only in programming but also in community involvement and fundraising. Working closely with local colleges, PRiMA engages in offering influential hands-on internships. PRiMA engages in professional event planning and management, as well as booking entertainers for special events at venues across the region. PRiMA helped originate marketing efforts for Lancaster's 'Extraordinary Give,' raising millions of dollars for over 200 local charities.
