Student Code of Conduct Violations Process

1. Violation Occurs
2. Incident Report is filled out
3. Judicial Affairs Office notified
4. Director determines whether a violation has taken place and decides who will hear the case.
5. Cases will be heard by Director, Case Manager or referred to Area Coordinator or Graduate Assistant (Judicial Affairs Coordinators).
6. If student wishes to appeal, an Administrative Appeal Hearing Form must be submitted to the VPSA office.
7. Administrative hearing will be held - If found responsible, sanctions will be issued.
8. Appeal hearing, if granted, is held by University Conduct Board.
9. Appeals to the President can be made only in Title IX cases.
10. The decision rendered by the University Conduct Board is final.