Join us in South Africa this January for a service learning opportunity!

Come Join Us! January 2-16, 2016 in:

Cape Town, South Africa

Millersville University of Pennsylvania
Alternative Winter Break Service Learning

Global Poverty: Human Needs, Economic Justice, and Social Change

Participants will explore historical, social, and political factors that have shaped South Africa and influenced the socio-economic status of its people.

Trip Highlights

Tour of Townships, Trip to Johannesburg, Robben Island, District Six Museum, Tour of Bo Kaap, Cape Point, Apartheid Museum, and Authentic African Cuisine and Music!

Participants will also visit a number of NGOs working with those in poverty to learn how they are assisting at the micro and macro levels, as well as have opportunities to volunteer.

Cost: $3995

Includes lodging, most meals, activity fees, CEUs, and Airfare*
*course credit, Passport, incidentals, Transportation to/from US airport, and some meals are extra Interested?

Attend Information Session, Thursday, August 27th at 12:15pm in Stayer Hall, Room 302

Contact Dr. Karen Rice
Room 307, Stayer Hall
717-871-5297
or karen.rice@millersville.edu