

Mission Statement

The Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards (SCCS) fosters student learning and success by balancing individual and community rights, while promoting a safe, student centered, and inclusive community.

Justification & Rationale

The Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards (SCCS) provides education on the student code of conduct, advocates for student's rights, and upholds the community standards and values of Millersville University. Through the discipline process, (SCCS) challenges students to think ethically and critically about their decision making and their role within the campus community. The Office of (SCCS) teaches accountability and responsible citizenship so every student will thrive within MU's diverse and dynamic academic community.
