TO: Millersville University Faculty
FROM: Jayme Trogus
        Chair, President’s Commission on the Status of Women
DATE: April 1, 2014
SUBJECT: Call for Nominations to PASSHE Women’s Consortium LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE FOR FACULTY WOMEN

The President’s Commission on the Status of Women welcomes applications from Millersville University faculty women for participation in the 2014 PASSHE Women’s Consortium Leadership Institute on July 27-August 1, 2014 at the Toftrees Resort and Conference Center in State College, PA.

The Institute provides participants with the insights, strategies, support, and inspiration to advance professionally and to lead productive change at Millersville University. The institute is designed to enable participants to address effectively the structural and social barriers that impede professional advancement for women faculty. The institute will cover areas such as gender and leadership, evaluation and promotion, conflict resolution, departmental and committee leadership, and advancement into administration. Additional details on the Institute can be found by reading the attached brochure.

The institute is designed to encourage collaboration and networking among women from varied disciplines, ranks, and leadership levels. Junior and senior faculty women with potential or demonstrated leadership ability are targeted. Two participants will be selected and supported by Millersville University’s President’s Commission on the Status of Women to attend. Participants may be required to secure and cover the costs of their transportation to and from the Institute.

If interested in applying to attend, please complete the attached application and return to Autumn Croasmun, Graduate Assistant for the President’s Commission on the Status of Women, by 4pm on Friday, April 18, 2014. Applications can be returned via email: womens.commission@millersville.edu or by paper in the Montour House.