

Summer INSTITUTES

2023

A summer institute on Culturally Relevant and Sustaining Education has been designed to help your school address new Chapter 49 requirements.

July 17 - 21, 2023

Meeting online
daily 9am-4pm

Attendees will:

- Self-reflect on their teaching practice.
- Assess their content curriculum using a CR-SE lens.
- Examine questions of equity using interdisciplinary pedagogies that are practical, innovative, engaging, and empowering.
- Implement new strategies and activities to foster culturally responsive curriculum and classroom communities.

Participants should be available 9am-4pm each day for a blend of synchronous and asynchronous work.

REGISTRATION:

PreK/Elem. - EDUC 588 CRN 3385
Middle/High Sch. - EDFN 589 CRN 3390
Term: Summer 3 2023

Institute Directors:

Dr. Jennifer Burke (PreK and Elementary)

Dr. Miriam Marguerita Gomez Witmer

(Middle and High School)

Scan QR code

or visit us here:

millersville.edu/summerinstitutes

Full list of summer institutes planned for 2023:

6/12 - 6/16: Fostering Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI)

6/12 - 6/16: Foundational Math to Inform Secondary Math Teaching

6/26 - 6/30: Current Trends in Art / Teaching with Contemporary Art

6/26 - 6/30: Rocket Teacher Certification

6/26 - 6/30: Literacy Institute / How Writing Boosts Literacy Skills, K-8

6/26 - 6/30: Supporting Inclusion as a Current School Leader

7/10 - 7/14: Problem-Based Learning Across the Curriculum

7/10 - 7/14: Micro-Residency for Art Educators

7/17 - 7/21: Trauma Institute for K-12 Educators

7/17 - 7/21: Culturally Relevant and Sustaining Education for PreK and Elementary

7/17 - 7/21: Culturally Relevant and Sustaining Education for Middle and High School

7/17 - 7/21: Expressive Arts in Response to Individual, Group or Community Trauma

7/17 - 7-21: Coding for Educators

7/24 - 7-28: ESL Institute

7/31 - 8/4: Trauma Institute for Mental Health Professionals

Summer Institutes are 3 credit graduate classes, offered in an intensive one week-long format, which can be applied to a master's degree in an appropriate graduate program at Millersville University. Institutes offer 90 hours of Act 48 credit.

Millersville University
COLLEGE OF GRADUATE STUDIES
& ADULT LEARNING

Scan QR code
or visit us here:
millersville.edu/summerinstitutes