The ESL Summer Institute is a week long course providing educators with instructional strategies and cultural insights necessary to effectively support the academic development of English Language Learners. Emphasis will be placed upon harnessing the academic strengths of English Language Learners and how to best leverage those abilities to foster improved performance and build genuine classroom communities. Culturally responsive teaching practices and inclusive methodologies will be emphasized throughout this course featuring guest appearances from various educational experts in the field of ESL instruction and advocacy from across the country.

FACILITATOR: MIGUEL A. ANTUNES

- Instructional Strategies
- Culturally Responsive Teaching
- Social Emotional Learning
- Supports for SLIFE / SIFE Students
- ED Systems Considerations for ELL's

Register Now:
EDUC 587  CRN 3521
Term:  Summer 3, 2023
millersville.edu/summerinstitutes

Course Participation Options:
In Person & Virtually