

Silvia Vasques-Lavado '96 is the principal of enterprise technology at PayPal, the founder and CEO of Courageous Girls (a group that uses adventure and nature to provide healing for women who have been sexually abused) and was recognized as one of Fortune magazine's 2015 "Heros of the Fortune 500." Silvia has climbed six of the seven tallest summits in the world, with a goal to complete the seventh, Mount Everest, this spring.