Job & Internship Fair

Thank you to the many alumni representing companies participating in the Job & Internship Fair at Millersville on November 3.

Dreams Do Come True

Just ask Marc Caserio '99.

In 2014, Caserio was named interim Athletic Director at University of the Sciences (Philadelphia) and has been serving in the role of Athletic Director since March of 2015. Described as being a "capable and dedicated leader" and having "infectious enthusiasm", he shares key messages that he uses in mentoring staff, coaches and student-athletes and that have helped him to attain his own goals (including a doctorate in higher education leadership and innovation from Wilmington University in 2015):

"Never say Never!"

"Never allow mistakes or failures to hold you back!"

"Never give up on your dreams!"

Because dreams do come true. At least they have for Marc Caserio.

Captain Justin Thorn is hired to transport equipment and supplies to a mining colony on the moon. When they arrive, Thorn and his crew discover a shocking secret that could jeopardize all life on earth. Trapped in orbit and with time and air running out, they attempt a daring maneuver that could save their lives if it doesn't get them all killed.
