A Word to the Wise

Although it was thought a year ago that with the close of the war the gaps in the ranks of teachers would be closed, it seems that the demand is still greatly in excess of the supply. Government and state reports have been made public from time to time, according to which over 140,000 out of about 650,000 teachers in the country dropped out of the service at the close of last year's work. This shortage has not been made good, and frantic appeals are coming in constantly for teachers to fill vacancies. In order to secure these teachers salaries are offered, far greater than the most sanguine had dared to believe possible. And in many places, schools still remain closed or are filled with poorly prepared teachers.

The demand for the well prepared will continue, and even better offers will be made to attract those that are able to teach to the satisfaction of those most vitally concerned. Unfortunately, the craze to make money easily and quickly is in the air, and too many young men and women are not willing to take time to thoroughly prepare themselves for a life profession.

Many are prophesying that a reaction, and possibly a panic, must ensue, and if it comes, thousands will be thrown out of employment. But there will continue to be the demand for educated and trained teachers, for schools must be kept open regardless of financial conditions. If such a time comes the well prepared teacher will see her abilities in demand, and need have no fear as to employment. And she will have money in her purse when others that are living for the present may be in want.

It is not the writer's nature to pose as a prophet of ill, but we earnestly urge both parents and young people, men and women, to prepare themselves in a line of work for which there is always a ready market.

We urge you to read the following advantages offered at Millersville Normal, and then decide to make this preparation. You will not regret it if you do, but may, if you do not.

C. H. G.

Spring Term Announcement

The spring term of the Millersville Normal School will open Tuesday, March 30. Day students will enroll Tuesday forenoon. Boarding students will be enrolled and classified, and their programs will be arranged through the day. Class work will begin Wednesday morning at eight o'clock.

Spring Term Opportunities

The schedule of classes during the spring term will be found especially interesting to all candidates for provisional or professional certificates. All the subjects required for these are included in the spring term program and no one should have any trouble in finding just what he most needs. More than that, those in charge of these subjects are all trained and experienced teachers and know how these subjects should be presented. In addition to those who wish to try for certificates, the spring term presents an excellent opportunity for students desiring to take up work leading to graduation. One-term subjects may be passed off and credit received on two-term or three-term subjects.

Classes Will Be Organized in the Following Subjects:

Algebra, Arithmetic, Physical Geography, Grammar and Composition, History (Ancient, Medieval, English, and United States), Beginning Latin, Beginning French, Beginning Spanish, Industrial Art, Manual Training, Public School Music, Reading, School Management, School Law and Sanitation, Spelling, Penmanship, Botany, Bookkeeping, Drawing, Plane Geometry, General Methods, Civics, Shorthand and Typewriting, Zoölogy, English and American Literature, Special Methods, Physiology, Domestic Science and Domestic Art. In addition to these subjects classes will be found in all-year subjects. Some are prepared to enter one or more of the latter.

Credits and Classification

Graduates of first class high schools are entered as Juniors; of second class as Sophomores, but may be promoted to the Junior class at any time; graduates of third class high schools are entered as Freshmen, but may also be promoted at any time. All such should send to Millersville for a high school application blank. Those holding State Permanent certificates enter the Junior year; Professional certificates, the Sophomore year; and Provisional certificates, the Freshman year. Others enter upon examination or statement and are classified accordingly. Do not forget to bring certificates with you.

Special Eight-week Course

As many teachers are not able to enter at the opening of the Spring term, either owing to their schools having been closed, or because of a longer term, special arrangements have been made for these. An eight-week term, beginning May 3rd, will be conducted, and the work will cover the same courses as for the entire term. The work, however, will be more intensive, as these classes will recite an hour a day, five days a week, instead of three times per week, as our regular schedule calls for. Extra teachers will be in readiness to start these classes, and they will thus be prepared to cover the regular ground. This was tried out last spring and proved so successful that it will be a regular feature of the spring term until it seems advisable to discontinue it. To meet the demand for the shorter course, teachers have already been engaged who have had a wide and successful experience in preparing teachers for county examinations.

For those that intend to enter at this time, rooms will be reserved on receipt of the enrollment fee of two dollars.

Vaccination Certificates

Inasmuch as the law has been made more stringent regarding vaccination, we are advised by our county health officer that all students should present certificates of successful vaccination. These will be held while the student is in attendance, and returned to him on leaving the school.

Millersville and the Millersville Normal

While the Millersville State Normal School is a household word in thousands of homes, its location is not so well known. Those whose ideas are a little hazy along this line will please note that Millersville Normal School should be associated with Lancaster County, Pa., the "Garden Spot of America." The village of Millersville is located four miles southwest of the city of Lancaster on the Lancaster and Manor pike. Half hour trolley service connects the village with the city, and those coming into Lancaster over either the Pennsylvania or the Reading railways have no trouble in reaching the school. Millersville is also reached by trolley from Pequea, a well known summer resort on the Columbia and Port Deposit branch of the P. R. R. Millersville is a home-like little village, a community of houses and churches, democratic in its ideals and always extending a hospitable hand to Normal Students.

Lancaster, a thriving city of 55,000, affords the usual facilities for shopping and entertainments.

The Millersville, Pa., Normal School has a reputation reaching far beyond the boundaries of the state. No school of its kind has contributed greater names to the educational history of state and nation. Rich in its traditions, with proud and loyal alumni of several thousand, it offers to the new student a reputation that requires no apologies.

Charges for the Spring Term

The expense to boarding students for 13 weeks is $97.50; if 17 years of age or over and intending to teach, $71.50. For part of a term $8.00 per week, or $6 if receiving state aid. Day students will be charged $31.00; $5, if 17 or over. For part of a term the former $2.50 per week, the latter 50 cents. In addition to the foregoing charges each student will pay an enrollment fee of $2 for the spring term.

No deduction will be made to students entering during the first two weeks or leaving within the last two weeks; also, no deduction for part of a week. Board includes room, heat, light, table board, and laundry. All students are admitted free to all athletic events and all numbers of the entertainment course. Before entering classes, students must make satisfactory financial arrangements with the treasurer, Mr. H. C. Symons.

Athletics and Outdoor Sports

A striking feature of the life at Millersville consists of the attention paid to the health of students and their health activities. Regular and systematic work in the gymnasium under thoroughly trained supervisors; football, basketball and baseball squads, tennis, rowing, cross country hikes, trips to field and forest for the necessary specimens of fauna and flora, all these and more tend to keep the students in the open air a large part of the time. Should contagious disease occur, they are promptly isolated and medical attendance is at once summoned. In fact, parents may rest assured that the health of their children is most carefully safeguarded.

Engagement of Rooms

As the best rooms naturally are most in demand, it is well to engage early. Send the enrollment fee of $2 and have a room reserved.

Summer School Announcement

Millersville Normal has conducted a summer school term since 1913 when it was tried largely as an experiment. So popular did this term become with constantly increasing attendance, that it has now become a regular feature of the school year. Students plan from one summer to the next as to the work they will take at each session.

The number in attendance during the summer of 1919 was the largest in the history of the school, over two hundred having enrolled. It looks as tho the summer of 1920 will go ahead of this.

The Faculty

Millersville has been specially fortunate in being able to retain for summer instruction practically all heads of departments, and where this has not been possible, to secure from a distance some one well known as a specialist in his or her line of work. This course will be followed for 1920, and those coming here can feel assured they will have the benefit of highly trained and skilled specialists.

Expenses

For the term of six weeks a charge of $33.00 will be made for table board, furnished room, light, and laundry. For a period less than the full term, by the week, $6.00 per week. No charge for less than one week. Students preferring to room alone will be charged 75c. per week extra. Single meals, 35c.

Tuition for the term, $12.00. This is free to those over 17 years who are not graduates of a State Normal, and who agree to teach two years in the state after graduation. Last year the State Department made a ruling that graduates of a State Normal who had received free tuition during their undergraduate course would not be entitled to free tuition at any State Normal while doing graduate work. This applies to those taking college courses. An enrollment fee of $3.00 will be charged to each student, thus making the entire expenses $36.00 to all boarding undergraduates, and $48.00 to all other boarders, for the entire term. Day students, $3.00 and $15.00, according to above plan.

How Shall I Reach Millersville?

As this question is frequently asked a detailed statement may not be amiss.

Those students who come to Millersville by railroad will purchase tickets to Lancaster, Pennsylvania; those coming on the Pennsylvania Railroad will take the electric car for Millersville marked M/V opposite the Pennsylvania station; those coming on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad will take a College Avenue car, one-half block south of the P. & R. Station, and go to Center Square, where they will take the Millersville car marked M/V. The Millersville car stops at the front gate of the Normal School.

Opportunities Offered by the Summer School

1. An opportunity to holders of provisional and professional certificates to pursue courses leading to higher certificates.
2. To one who expects to teach next fall for the first time an excellent opportunity to learn by actual teaching under expert supervision. A model school will be maintained and regular school work carried on. No young teachers can afford to miss this rare chance.

3. A splendid opportunity to those preparing for college to secure advanced credits in English, Latin, French, Mathematics, Science, etc.
4. A good chance for all Normal undergraduates to pass off conditions and take such courses as will count on their regular school work.
5. An opportunity to holders of certificates of the old three year course to add such branches as are required under the present course.
6. An opportunity for research work through the facilities offered by our fine library of nearly 20,000 volumes.

Admission

No special requirements are demanded for admission to the Summer School. It is assumed that students are qualified to enter the courses they elect.

Credits

Credits will be given for all work satisfactorily finished. These credits may be used for the regular Normal Course, or, if of college grade, will be accepted by the colleges of the state.

Recreation

Believing that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, sufficient attention has been given to recreation. The athletic field, tennis courts, lake, and pleasant walks combine to afford healthful and pleasant recreation. Under the big trees will be found numerous benches and entire classes may resort to them during a heated spell.

Excursions

For several years it has been the custom to conduct excursions to the famous Cloisters at Ephrata, the big power plant at Holtwood, and to other points of interest. Arrangements are made for students to attend the band concert and fireworks display in Lancaster on July 4th, and the big school picnic toward the end of the term has become one of the most delightful events of the summer session. There are also field excursions for those interested in flora and fauna.

Free Lectures and Talks

LIBRARY TOURS

In order to inform the students of the Summer School of the Library facilities at hand, early in the first week, the Librarian, Miss Ganser, will conduct them on "Library Tours," lasting about an hour. There will be several groups and everyone is invited to join one of them.

POPULAR BOOK TALKS

All book lovers are invited to attend the two or three "Book-Talks" to be given during the term. The meetings will take place on the campus and will last about an hour. At each one of them some book of popular interest will be read, reviewed and discussed.

OTHER FORMS OF ENTERTAINMENT

In addition to the above, arrangements will be made for a series of free lectures on vital present day questions by those especially fitted to present such lines of work. Community singing, sociables, etc., will also be provided.

It will be seen from the above that those that come to Millersville for one summer term always want to come again. It is one of the most delightful places in which to spend six weeks, and the time can be employed in work and recreation that will be of great future service.

When you read this, decide to come. Write for a room reservation, enclosing the enrollment fee of three dollars, and the school will do the rest.

Courses of Instruction

NOTE.—Every class will recite one hour daily.

ART

DRAWING. 1. FREEHAND DRAWING. This course is designed to give good training in freehand drawing. When satisfactorily completed this course may be counted as credit for Drawing 1 of the Regular Normal Course.

ART. 2. DRAWING AND HANDWORK FOR ELEMENTARY GRADES. This course is planned to aid the elementary school teacher, graded or ungraded, in planning and carrying out constructive work that will be educative as well as artistic. This work will involve drawing, painting, paper cutting, paper tearing, paper folding, weaving, basket-making, poster making, etc. This course may be counted as credit for Industrial Arts in the Regular Normal Course.

DRAWING 3. DESIGN AND MECHANICAL DRAWING. Teachers of grammar grades, high schools, and supervisors will find in this course just what they need for more practice in the following: (1) mechanical drawing; simple geometrical problems, working drawings; (2) design: plant analysis, theory of color, applications, compositions; (3) methods; (4) history of art. When satisfactorily completed this course may be counted as credit for Drawing 3 of the Regular Normal Course.

EDUCATION

COURSE 1. SCHOOL MANAGEMENT AND SCHOOL PROBLEMS. This course aims to acquaint the student with the best methods and plans of organizing schools, with special reference to RURAL SCHOOL CONDITIONS. When satisfactorily completed the work of this course may be counted toward School Management of the first year of the Regular Normal Course.

COURSE 2. GENERAL METHODS. By means of lectures, text-book study, reading, and discussion, the fundamental principles of methods are presented. When satisfactorily completed, it may be credited as second year Education in the Regular Normal Course.

SCHOOL OF OBSERVATION AND PRACTICE

Beginning Tuesday morning, June 28, a school of observation and practice will be opened for the benefit of the teachers in attendance. It will be organized so as to include the first six grades, and in the manner of an up-to-date one-room school. The problems worked out in this school will be such as come to every teacher in the rural districts, and will be of special benefit to every teacher of a one-room school. The school will be in session from nine to eleven o'clock. Those that observe may remain one hour or two as their time and inclination permit.

During the first three weeks the supervisor in charge will do the teaching, and during the last three weeks those taking this work will have an opportunity to carry out these lessons in actual teaching.

CONFERENCE HOUR

At one o'clock a conference hour will be conducted. Plans, devices, results, and motives will be taken up and fully discussed, such discussion being based on the work of the morning.

Those taking at least one hour of observation and afternoon conference will be credited with General Methods in the Regular Normal course.

ENGLISH.

COURSE 1. ENGLISH GRAMMAR. This course aims to familiarize the student with the classification and analysis of sentences, to teach the parsing of all the parts of speech, and in general the mastery of the rules of syntax and their application. If satisfactorily completed, this work may be counted as credit for English Grammar of the first year of the Regular Normal course.

COURSE 2. RHETORIC AND COMPOSITION. The principles of Rhetoric will be studied and then applied in the daily themes or frequent essays required in this work. This course may be counted in part for the requirements for second-year English in the Regular Normal course. English Classics will be read and studied.

COURSE 4. ADVANCED ENGLISH LITERATURE, THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE ENGLISH NOVEL. The purpose of this course is to show the growth of prose fiction from Malory to Kipling. It aims to lead to a more appreciative reading of the great novels of English Literature. The books read will show, in logical order, the development of the novel. This course may be counted as credit for English Literature of the Regular Normal course. College credit also given for full Freshman year.

HISTORY

COURSE 1. UNITED STATES HISTORY. This course offers lectures, supplemented by reading, reports, etc. It may be counted as credit for United States History of the Junior year in the Regular Normal course.

LATIN

COURSE 1. CAESAR. Four books of Caesar's Gallic War will be read provided students are able to read so much. This may be credited toward the Regular Normal course.

COURSE 2. CICERO OR VERGIL. Students will be permitted to select Cicero or Vergil. This work may be credited toward the Regular Normal course.

COURSE 3. ADVANCED LATIN. Livy, Horace, Juvenal. The course will cover one year of college Latin. Two courses may be offered.

MATHEMATICS

COURSE 1. ARITHMETIC. The work in this course aims to give the student accuracy and speed in arithmetical operations, the fundamental principles of the various subjects usually taught in arithmetic as well as the application of these principles. The work may be completed so as to count it as first-year Arithmetic in the Regular Normal course.

COURSE 2. ALGEBRA. This work corresponds to the work which is required in the first year of the Regular Course. It includes a rapid review of the work of Course 2, and carries the work through quadratic equations, ratio and proportion, and progressions.

COURSE 3. PLANE GEOMETRY, BOOKS I, II, III.

COURSE 4. PLANE GEOMETRY, BOOKS IV, V.

Both Course 3 and Course 4 may be counted as credit toward Plane Geometry of the Regular Normal course.

A course in Solid Geometry or Trigonometry or both will be organized if the number starting such a course will warrant.

MODERN LANGUAGES

COURSE 1. SPANISH. This course will consist of elementary work in Spanish.

It will prove of special value to those who contemplate secretarial work that requires correspondence with Latin America. Owing to conditions arising from the World War there is an increasing demand for men and women who are acquainted with the Spanish language.

FRENCH

COURSE 2. FIRST YEAR FRENCH. This course is offered for any desiring to substitute French for Latin in the Regular Normal course and for any desiring to master the elements of French for College credit.

COURSE 3. ADVANCED FRENCH. For those desiring credit for advanced French this course offers an excellent opportunity. The work counts as credit toward the Regular Normal Course as well as for college credit.

MUSIC

COURSE 1. PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC. This course covers the rudiments as required of teachers of music in the public schools of to-day as well as methods of instruction. Every teacher should be able to teach the rudiments of music and nearly all can teach singing if they are properly trained. This course aims at giving such training. When satisfactorily completed this course may be counted as credit for Vocal Music of the Regular Normal course.

One hour daily, 3 p. m., Model School Assembly Hall.

VOICE CULTURE. Private lesson in Voice Culture may be taken at the regular rates which are as follows:

2 lessons weekly and 2 practice periods daily .....$2.00 per week.

1 lesson weekly and 1 practice period daily ..... 1.00 per week.

1 lesson without use of piano ..... .85

PIANO LESSONS. Lessons on the Piano may be taken at the same rates as Voice Culture.

SCIENCE

COURSE 1. BOTANY. This course covers the morphology of the four large groups of plants with special emphasis on the morphology and physiology of higher plants. Some time will be devoted to collecting and classifying common flowering plants. Field excursions will be made. This course may be counted as credit for Botany of the Regular Normal course. Laboratory fee, 25 cents. Three one-hour recitation periods and two laboratory periods per week.

COURSE 2. TEACHERS' GEOGRAPHY. This course in Geography aims to present the fundamental facts and principles of Geography from the viewpoint of the teacher. The work will consist of text-book work, study and reading of maps, lectures, readings, reports, etc. This course may be counted as credit for Geography of the Regular Normal course.

COURSE 3. AGRICULTURE. This course aims to cover the important principles of Agriculture together with practical work in gardening, spraying, milk testing, judging cattle, seed testing, etc. Excursions will be made to surrounding farms. This course will cover the requirements for Agriculture in the Regular Normal course. Laboratory fee, $1.

Five recitations and two or three field and laboratory periods per week.

COURSE 4. PHYSICS. This course will include the essentials of Physics. It will prepare those who intend to take the examination for State Permanent certificate and will also count as credit toward the Regular Normal Course. The amount of credit will depend upon the amount of laboratory work done.

OTHER COURSES OF STUDY

So large was the attendance during the summer of 1919, and so great the demand, that special courses were formed in General History, Chemistry, Second Term Drawing, Higher Algebra, a second year of College Latin, American Literature, Zoölogy, Solid Geometry, and Theory of Equations.

As the purpose of the summer term is to do as much good as possible, classes will again be formed in the above subjects if the demand warrants it. The school will not feel justified in offering any course for fewer than four students.

The regular school year of the Millersville State Normal School will open Thursday, September 7, 1920. This is Enrollment Day.

On Wednesday, September 8, all class exercises begin. Rooms may be engaged for the Fall Term at any time, but it is best to engage early, sending the enrollment fee of two dollars for room reservation.

For catalogue and further information address,

C. H. GORDINIER.

Principal.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TRUNKS

Arrangements are made with the Conestoga Traction Company whereby trunks, etc., are brought from baggage rooms at the Pennsylvania and Reading railway stations on the opening day of the fall and spring terms. When they come to school on one of these days, students will hand railroad checks for baggage to the Conestoga Traction Company employee detailed at the station for the purpose of looking after Normal School baggage with payment for transportation.

Those arriving at any other time will hand their baggage checks to the conductor on the Millersville street car with payment for transportation.

The Conestoga Traction Company has agreed upon the following charges:

	On opening day	On other days
Trunks . . . . .	$0.37	$0.62
Suit Cases . . . . .	.21	.31
Hand bags . . . . .	.21	.31

Exchanges

The NORMAL JOURNAL will be glad to exchange copies with the papers published at the other Normal Schools. So far we acknowledge the receipt of the following: The Normal School Herald, Cumberland Valley State Normal School; The Slippery Rocket, Slippery Rock State Normal School; Birch Bark, East Stroudsburg State Normal School; The Amulet, West Chester State Normal School; The Narrator, Schuylkill Seminary.

HARRY C. METZGER

Harry C. Metzger was more widely known among Millersville graduates and students than any other person at the school, and the news of his death will be of sad interest to the majority of the readers of the NORMAL JOURNAL. "Harry," as he was familiarly and affectionately called, had rung the bell and carried the mail and done the other duties pertaining to his office as janitor for more than fifty-one years. Though seventy-three, he carried his age well. He had a heavy cold on Feb. 2, contracted, it was thought, through attendance at night on a sick brother in the village; he was put to bed suffering with chills and though everything possible was done for his alleviation, he grew steadily worse and died of pneumonia Feb. 7, 1920. He leaves two sons: Charles, Millersville, '92, of Lansing, Michigan, and Abram, '94, of Alabama.

The school did him all honor in having the funeral services held in the newly decorated Normal Chapel, which had been his pride and care for many years. The school bell was tolled as the coffin was carried in; probably no one but Harry had ever tolled it before, the last time being for Dr. Byerly. Rev. Mr. Hartman, his pastor, and Dr. Hull preached sermons, with fitting words of sincere eulogy for his sterling worth, and Dr. Gordinier added some appreciative remarks. Beautiful and costly floral tributes were sent by the Faculty, the literary societies, the Senior and Junior classes, the household department and others. It took about twenty minutes for those in attendance to pass by the coffin. The rites at the grave in the Reformed churchyard were conducted by the Masonic order.

He was a consistent member of the Reformed church and for a long time was a member of the choir. His strict integrity, faithful work, and quiet dignity gained him the respect of all; his unfailing cheerfulness and kindness and his pleasing personality made him universally beloved. Living in the dormitory the last few years, he was brought into close contact with the student body by whom he was almost idolized.

When the parcel post law went into effect, the students took up a collection to purchase a rubber-tired cart for the heavy packages he carried to and from the post office and took great pleasure in surprising him with a public presentation of it in Chapel exercises. On the completion of his fiftieth year of service here, Oct. 15, 1918, the Faculty showed their appreciation of Harry by presenting him with fifty carnations and a substantial gift of War Savings Stamps.

He was beloved by the children, he was patient and kind to all, especially was he discreet. All the Faculty children from the days of "Eddie" Brooks, back in the 70's, down through the little Hulls and Bitners and Lytes and Harbolds and others to Betty Symons and Mary Louise Lyte of today have been the staunchest friends and admirers of their kind friend, Harry, who has petted and indulged them all. Patiently he has answered for the ten-thousandth time, "Have you a letter for me today?" as if it were a matter of real interest to himself! How kindly he has supplied the lacking postage on the letters and packages of the careless or those presuming on his goodness! Often in possession of important facts relating to the discipline or policy of the school, he was an absolutely safe custodian, never known to be guilty of indiscretion. He was a rare man, a living example of the fact that a man's ability for useful service is not limited by his position, nor are his opportunities for increasing the happiness and the good of the world.

Harry, "thou has tarried with us long. Now thou hast gone to thy well-earned rest. Hail and farewell!"

Dining Room Service

The attention of parents and prospective students is called to the excellent dining room service at Millersville. Realizing that students can do the best work only when well nourished, the authorities have not curtailed this important feature of boarding school life, regardless of the increased cost for furnishing a good table. Mr. Palmer, with years of experience and training, prepares meals that are equalled by few schools. Fresh fruits in season, and well balanced ration of meats and vegetables with well cooked pastry allow no cause for complaint. Milk for drinking is furnished to students twice a day, a feature eliminated at present at many schools. Visitors express astonishment at the liberal portions of everything, and ask how it can be done. Well, it is done, for the well being and comfort of students and faculty are carefully looked after at Millersville.

Send Correct Address

The next issue of the NORMAL JOURNAL is the Catalogue Number. It is desired to have the alumni list as nearly perfect as it can be made. We therefore take this opportunity to ask each graduate to notify the school if an error exists in the 1919 Catalogue.

Can any one supply the addresses of any of the following alumni to whom we have been unable to deliver recent issues of the NORMAL JOURNAL?

Library Notes

A recent acquisition that is much appreciated in the Library is a filing cabinet for the picture collection. These pictures are chiefly used in the Art Department and the Model School.

One of the most popular novels at the present time is Bernie Babcock's "The Soul of Ann Rutledge." Its theme is the early love affairs of Abraham Lincoln.

Teachers of reading still find inspiration and practical suggestion in Hiram Carson's "The Voice and Spiritual Education," published in 1896.

"The Real Business of Living," by James H. Tufts, provides valuable supplementary reading for the class in Civics.

Basketball

This season's varsity faces one of the hardest schedules ever attempted by the Normal, but a team has been developed that is capable of bringing the season to a successful close. At the present writing five close games have been played, all of which resulted in victories. The game with Bloomsburg Normal was one of the most exciting games ever played on the local floor. The varsity consists of the following men: C. Warfel, Capt.; R. Warfel, Rees, Mitten, Huber, and Brennan, with the following men in reserve: McClung, Fisher, Sullivan, Keener, Kelly, Morrison, and Sneath.

The Normal girls have also developed a good basketball team under the instruction of Coach Granger. The first team consists of Martha Newgard, Allene Worth, Miriam Bard, Kathryn Leaman, and Mazie Reinhart, with Mary Kimble as substitute. Some of the girls that practice against these are Mary Rohrer, Mildred Fellenbaum, Dorothy Myers, Louise Levergood, and Nellie Kimport. They have played Camp Hill, Lititz, and Manheim, winning two out of the three games.

The Literary Societies

The Normal. The officers of the Normal Society are: President, Paul Shaub; Vice President Eugene Wallace; Secretary, Kathryn M. Rambo; Ass't. Secretary, Lora Wallace; Critic, Annabel Myers. These questions have been debated recently, "The principle of the closed shop is justifiable," "The negro in the United States should have been taken into the industrial service instead of drafted into the A. E. F.," and "The action of the Senate on the present peace treaty was justified." Essays have been read by Kathryn Rombo, Hilda Groh, Ella Rankin, and Laura Burket, orations given by Edna Craley and Bessie Shaub, and recitations by Norma Ritchey, Anna Myers, Willis Sneath and Wm. Landefield. Gladys Rorer, Leone Hanawalt, Isabel Hughes, Jessie Scarborough, and Wade Kelley have assisted in the vocal music, and Lora Wallace, Laura Burket, Helen Paxton, and Lazaro Milaon in instrumental solos or duets.

The Page. The officers are: Pres., Fred. Baker; Vice Pres., George Smith; Secretary, Beulah Keith; Ass't. Secretary, Helen Mentzer; Censor, Anna Brubaker; Curators, Allene Worth and Grace Henderson. These questions have been debated: "An educational qualification for suffrage should be required," "Immigration is detrimental to the United States," "Examinations are a true test of scholarship and a necessary means for promoting education," "Capital punishment is justifiable." Mildred Fellenbaum, Mary Kimble, and Louise Schreiner have given recitations, and James Sullivan, Ida Crum, and Mary Mast have delivered orations. Contributions to the musical part of the program have been made by Misses Mast, Bard, Snyder, Mentzer, Lebo, and Grimes.

The NORMAL JOURNAL sends sincere wishes for happiness to all.

Deaths

[Please send items for this column to Miss Gilbert.]

'68. Hon. David McMullen died Dec. 20, 1919, at the Lancaster General Hospital of pneumonia, a few hours after the funeral of his wife. He was actively engaged in the practice of law up to his death, was a member of the Board of Trustees here for many years, president of the Lancaster General Hospital from its organization till recently, for twenty years president of Lancaster City School Board, treasurer of St. James' Episcopal Church—a worthy son of the old Normal in all these and other duties of his useful, honored life. Our most distinguished class of 1868 has lost another valuable member in his death.

'72. Rev. Newton C. Fetter died in Reading on Dec. 12, 1919, aged 71. He graduated here with the highest honors and after teaching for a time, prepared for the ministry, and was a clergyman in the Baptist church for many years,—at New Britain, Doylestown, and Stroudsburg in this state and Spokane, Wash. Once on a delightful and helpful visit to his Alma Mater, he gave a handsome Bible for the chapel rostrum. His three sons are Baptist ministers.

'78. Mrs. Hannah Fairlamb Foerster died at her home in Harrisburg, Nov. 21, 1919. Miss Fairlamb was married to her classmate, George Foerster, soon after graduation. One son, Frederick, attended the Normal. Her church paper comments on "a loved ministry closed upon earth, her home-life hedged in with love and service, her church-life sincere and devoted."

'87. John L. Shroy died at a Phila. hospital on Jan. 13, 1920, of pneumonia. For over twenty years he had been principal or superintendent in the Philadelphia public schools. He was well known as an educator throughout the state, and a contributor to leading publications. He had a considerable reputation as a poet, usually taking his themes from school or rustic life, and was called sometimes the "James Whitcomb Riley of Philadelphia." His first wife was Edith T. Knight, a Millersville school-mate, class of '88. He will be much missed at the Normal Alumni meetings where his genial presence, his musical leadership and his frequent contributions of original verses for special occasions were much appreciated. We quote from The Lancaster Inquirer, "His character was the finest, his disposition of the sunniest, his friendship of the warmest, his heart of the tenderest."

'96. A. Alvin Bear died of tuberculosis at his home in New Holland, Pa., on Jan. 25, 1920. His teaching service included four years in the Philippines and several years in Indian schools in Minnesota and the Pacific states. Following that he had worked in the Indian Reservation section of the Interior Department, at Washington.

'21. Mollie Neidamyier died at her home, Rothsville, Pa., Feb. 3, 1920. She had not been able to return to school after the Christmas holidays on account of ill health. She was a good girl and a faithful student. A committee of six was appointed by her class-mates to represent the Junior Class at her funeral.

Kind Words From Our Friends

"I always look forward with great pleasure to receiving the NORMAL JOURNAL." "How much I do enjoy reading the little chats about Millersville!" "After reading it I feel just as one does when he is away and has received a nice newsy home letter." "THE JOURNAL has arrived and from cover to cover has been perused print bare." "It was always a welcome visitor, but is now even more, for it bubbles with just the things we delight in knowing—just the interesting news items that make us feel that we are still one of you." The editor is pleased with these and many other kind words of appreciation from former students and friends.

Alumni Notice

The members of the Alumni Association are reminded that the regular annual meeting will be held at Millersville on June 23, 1920, at 2 p. m. The historians of the classes of '60, '70, '80, '90, '00, and '10 should have their histories ready for the occasion. The secretary of the association, Miss Gilbert, will be glad to assist them in reaching members whose addresses are not known. In this connection let us urge again that each graduate keep his address correct in the catalogue list, and also send notice of any mistakes he may notice in the addresses of others. We should especially appreciate such action this year, in which we shall arrange all names alphabetically in one long list without regard to classes, as was done in 1915.

Alumni Notes

[Items for this column are solicited and should be sent to Miss Gilbert.]

'73. Paul C. Harper, son of Evangeline Coates Harper, Seattle, paid a brief call at his mother's alma mater on Nov. 5th.

'77. Mrs. Mary E. Lenhardt Reeder has reopened the Millersville drug store, closed since the death of Dr. E. E. Lenhardt, '00, in 1917, and will run it in connection with Geary Weston, a former student and Lancaster druggist.

'81. H. Justin Roddy was elected a Fellow of the Geological Society of America at the recent annual meeting in Baltimore.

'83. Mrs. Katherine Corbin Land, Seattle, Washington, made a brief call at the Normal on Dec. 1st.

'89. Wm. M. Taggart, of the U. S. postal service, has been promoted to the superintendency of Motor Vehicle service in New York City.

'93. Elmer M. Apple and wife celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Christmas Day, 1919. Their home is at 22d and Berks Sts., Phila., where Mr. Apple has been in the drug business for fifteen years.

'01. Fannie Denlinger Snyder was bereaved of her husband by the influenza prevalent last winter. She is teaching at Neffsville.

'02. Arthur H. Hull, Esq., son of our genial senior professor, Dr. George W. Hull, entertained at his hospitable home in Harrisburg on Christmas all the Hull family, now increased to eighteen.

'09. Minnie Gilliland Hunter in a letter from her home, Bethany, West Va., mentions casually, "Good coal is three dollars a ton."

'10. J. W. Bucher is a special student in education at Temple University.

'12. Addie Harlacker is now the wife of Dr. Ray H. Luke, 806 Rankin Ave., Lawrence Park, Erie, Pa.

'12. Dorothy Gherst is secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Newton, New Jersey.

'12. Pauline Gelhard is teaching in Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey.

'15. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCoy (nee Margaret Kern) announce the birth of Mignon Fannetia McCoy, Jan. 12, 1920.

'15. Anna H. Gross writes from Berkeley that she is taking work at the University of California.

'16. Olive Stoner is employed in the registry department of the U. S. Treasury, Washington.

'17. Lester H. Weikel is teaching for the Federal Board of Vocational Education at Spring Garden Institute, Phila., at a salary of $150 per month. He also has a class of foreigners at the Stetson hat factory two evenings a week. He plans to take the college course for teachers at the University of Pa. next semester.

'18. Anna Leonhardt took a course of study at State College last summer. Her efficient work in the Girardville schools has prompted the school board to advance her salary during the year.

'18. Luisa Lillo L. sailed from New York for her home in Santiago, Chile, on Dec. 6, and hoped to reach there by Dec. 25th. Miss Lillo successfully completed the course in education at the University of Pennsylvania last year.

Martha Opie, a former student, is the author of some verse beginning, "Please give me a Red Cross seal," she said," which she gave to the National Red Cross Association for publication in aid of the Christmas sale. It was sent by them to over 8,000 Red Cross chairmen for distribution.

School Notes

Nov. 7. Lancaster County School Directors' Association met here. The principal address was by Lee Rider, on Consolidation of Schools. The directors contributed over a hundred dollars to the Chapel Fund.

Nov. 8. The ladies of the faculty had a supper in the East Annex, the piece de resistance being some rabbits brought down by our Nimrod, Prof. Symons. The American Concert Grand Quintette gave a concert here in the evening.

Nov. 9. The last meeting in the chapel before the scraping and refrescoing of the walls was held in the evening. The service flag was demobilized, G. Reed Alexander, '04, making a speech. Miss Gilbert read a paper on the portraits in the old frescoes and the many scenes on which they had looked down.

Nov. 14. The Normal Society meeting was held in Room R, as all large meetings must be for some time on account of the scaffolding in the Normal Chapel.

Nov. 20. Mr. Symons returned from a successful gunning trip in the Tuscarora mountains.

Nov. 22. The Senior class gave an entertainment in the gymnasium, the Education of Sylvester Smith, in moving (and living) pictures, and a "Trip Through Seven States."

Nov. 26. School closed at noon for a Thanksgiving vacation to last till Monday morning, Dec. 2. Nearly all boarding students went home.

Dec. 3-6. Examinations were held on the work of the fall term.

Dec. 6. The second number of our entertainment course, the Harp-Vocal Ensemble, was held in the Martin Auditorium, Lancaster.

Dec. 17. The Y. W. C. A. presented "The Nativity" in pantomime in the evening.

Dec. 19. Christmas holidays began. All students left for Christmas except Mr. Milaor from the Philippines.

Dec. 29-30. Among the teachers that attended the Pa. State Teachers' Association in Phila. were Dr. Gordinier, Mr. Trucksess, Misses Gilbert, Whittaker, Conard, and Gochnauer.

Dec. 31. School reopened after the holiday vacation, with nearly everybody back at work in good time.

Jan. 1, 1920. For the first time in many years all school exercises were continued as usual on New Year's Day.

Jan. 2. Misses Lilian Gherst, '94, and Letitia B. Clark, former teachers, and Maude Shenkle, '02, were visitors at the Normal.

Jan. 5. Our boys worked valiantly on the afternoon of Jan. 5 to prevent the spread of the fire that completely destroyed Schmoll's bakery in the village.

Jan. 6. Seats were rearranged in the dining-room, alphabetically, without regard to classes. So some Freshmen are now at the upper tables, and the X-Y-Z's of the Senior class at the lower ones. It is an experiment to promote wider acquaintance.

Jan. 7. Prof. Dilworth was called to his old home in Indiana on account of the death of his mother, and was absent about a week.

Jan. 10. Stephen Harboush, "Shepherd of Galilee," gave the third number of our entertainment in the Reformed church. Wearing Oriental costume, he told in a clear, interesting way of his native country.

"Better Speech Work" and the week of the Red Cross drive were the same, Nov. 3-7. We observed the former with class-room exercises, posters, etc. The cause of the Red Cross was set forth from the rostrum by Miriam Kreider, Mary Mast, Ruth Gise, Edith Moore, Janet Miller, and Lazaro Milaor, and a canvass for membership was made with gratifying results.

The Normal menu is kept up despite the high cost of living. We selected Sunday, Jan. 18, as a sample Sunday. Breakfast, oranges, soft-boiled eggs, fried potatoes, bread and butter, coffee, milk; Dinner, stewed chicken with dumplings, mashed potatoes, peas, celery, bread, and butter, cake with chocolate icing, vanilla ice-cream; Supper, bologna sausage, baked sweet potatoes, bread and butter, canned cherries, coffee, milk. The open sugar bowl is on the table, and syrup is always found there.

Among recent visitors here have been George Young, '19, Hilda Weaver, '19, Bertha Belser, '19, Sarah Gherst, Ivan Houck, Katherine Showalter, Helen Ferguson, Pauline Danner, Mark Stine, Margaret Beale, '17, Miriam Hostetter, '18, Anne Davis, '19, Elizabeth Kemper Souders, '84, Miriam Hess, '19, Ellen Gault, '19, Lieut. Frank Godfrey, Geo. Linderman, '19, Lloyd Kline, '19, Mary E. Noonan, '19, Ethel Brenneman, '19, Eleanor Witmer, '18, Edith Fridy, '05, Madeline Welchans, '15, John Kennedy, '13, Hannah Whitson, '93.

The Elson Art Exhibit, given in the gymnasium here, on Jan. 30 and 31, was a success in every respect. Some two hundred copies of world-famous masterpieces were represented. Talks explaining these and describing different schools of art and architecture were given by Rosa Schwartz, Dorothy Johnson, Ethel Feagley, Edna Fiero, Anna Brubaker and others. Refreshments were sold and orders were taken for pictures. About a hundred and fifty dollars represent the net profit, which will be expended in prints for library use and a few large pictures for the buildings.

On Feb. 28, will occur the Inter-Society debate on the question of the ratification of the pending treaty with Columbia. The Page will be represented by Ethel Feagley, Dorothy Johnson and James Sullivan, who will later debate the same question with West Chester School. Fuhrman Bailey, Ruth Grigg, and Samuel Strickler uphold the negative against the Page and will contest on the same side against Shippensburg Normal School.

Miss Mary Moll, our Latin teacher, was gladly welcomed back by her many friends on Feb. 9th after a month's absence from illness.

The Kutztown Normal School boys gave us a fine, spirited basket ball game on our floor on Feb. 7th, scoring above us in the first half. In the second half we easily outplayed them and the game closed with the score of 29 to 19 in our favor.

The Senior Play

On Feb. 21st, the Class of 1920 will present the annual Senior Play. The play chosen is "An American Citizen," by Madeline Lucett Ryley. It is a lively play with an absorbing plot and not at all amateurish, having been interpreted by such actors as N. C. Goodwin and Maxine Elliott. A report is received at the offices of Barbury, Brown & Cruger, solicitors, New York, of the suicide of one of the partners, Brown. The remaining partners are not able to find some bonds for which Brown was security, and in order to save the honor of the firm, they decide they must make good the loss. Cruger's English uncle had left him a fortune on condition he should become an Englishman, and marry an English woman. Cruger had indignantly rejected the legacy, but when he finds himself in financial difficulties, and farther, when he finds that the uncle had cut off his own daughter with fifty pounds to buy mourning, Cruger marries the girl and divides the fortune with her. The couple part at the church door and do not meet until a year later at Nice. He falls desperately in love with his wife and when through a law-suit he loses the fortune that came with her, he goes to work manufacturing stove polish to support himself and her. She recognizes his nobility, he renounces his English citizenship and they return to America and happiness.

The principal parts are taken by Fuhrman Bailey and Edith Moore, and the other actors are Misses Bower, Roumfort, Brubaker, and Cameron, and Messrs. Baker, Ford, Sullivan, Kelly, Shaub, Dierwechter, Fishel, Eshelman and Milaor.

Although the play is rather difficult, the young people take their parts well, and a delightful entertainment is assured.

Miss Landes is coaching the play and Mr. Samuel Strickler is business manager.

Y. W. C. T. U.

Y. W. C. T. U. The White Ribbon Society of the Normal School started work this year with the following corps of officers: President, Amanda Landes; Vice President, Anna Brubaker; Recording Secretary, Dorothy Martin; Corresponding Secretary, Jean Garvin; Treasurer, Sarah H. Gilbert; Superintendent of Literature, Arline Snyder; Superintendent of Flower Mission Work, Elsie Jackson. Edna Craley and Adeline Reiver are in charge of the music for the meetings.

A distinct jubilee note has been pervading the meetings of the fall and winter terms. "The Funeral Sermon of John Barleycorn," "The Estate of John Barleycorn," "Americanization," and "A Demonstration of Americanization," have been interesting and instructive subjects. Two other notable meetings have been the Christmas meeting and the Jubilee meeting on Jan. 15.

The speakers at our meetings have been Misses Brubaker, Reiver, Beatty, Rambo, Martin, Mumma, Snyder, and Landes, and Messrs. Strickler, Baker, Bailey, Dr. Hull, and Rev. Mr. Schaum, of Lancaster.

The Union is pledged to raise one hundred and sixty-five dollars as its quota of the million dollar Jubilee Fund, and we are still at work on it. About three-fourths of it has been secured, and if any friends or former members wish to give a little help the money will be gratefully received and devoted to the good work.

The Union has been very successful this year in gaining new members, and is trying to do its full share in the great program of law enforcement and advanced reconstruction work planned by the National W. C. T. U.

AMANDA LANDES.

The Normal Chapel

The Normal Chapel was formally re-opened for use on the evening of February 8th. The soiled old fresco has been entirely replaced by new coloring of a light ecru tint restful to the eye. There are four portraits on the ceiling, those of Horace Mann, Lincoln, Franklin and Shakespeare. Among these are symbolic designs representing Architecture, The Arts, Science, and Music. On the front wall Clio and Urania retain their old positions, but have been newly painted. In the centre is a design repre-sending Alma Mater instructing her children in the science and art of teaching, and above this is the state seal of Pennsylvania. The lighting has been changed to the new indirect or inverted system much more comfortable for the eyes.

Dr. Hull preached a fine sermon on the text, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free," which is inscribed on the front wall. The various village ministers assisted in the services, and Dr. Gordinier gave a short address on the history of the undertaking and the various features of the improvements.

We are all very glad to return to the Chapel for our school meetings.

The Chapel Fund

The Chapel Fund has grown to $1,288.50. The opportunity for assisting in this fine work of rehabilitation is still open; the whole cost will probably be about a thousand dollars more, including changing of lights, scaffolding, etc. Additional contributors up to Jan. 20 are given below:
