Analytical and Problem Solving Skills:

- Developed decision-making skills and learned quantitative as well as qualitative methods of problem solving.
- Developed ability to choose among various courses of action under risk and uncertainty using different perspectives.
Communication Skills:
- I learned to develop and deliver a persuasive presentation, both written and oral.
- I learned to develop and deliver a persuasive written presentation.
- I learned to develop and deliver a persuasive oral presentation.
- I am able to communicate using information technology.
- My interpersonal and collaborative skills have improved (showing empathy, treating others with respect, promoting solidarity and trust).
The program helped me to appreciate the importance of volunteerism and community service.

I am able to assess ethical dimensions and the community impact in decision-making.
Business Sense: The program helped me develop my appreciation for lifelong learning and its importance to my professional career advancement.

I understand basic economics and challenges managers face in an increasingly competitive market.

I understand basic economics, issues of globalization, and challenges managers face in an increasingly competitive market.

I understand the issues of globalization, and challenges managers face in an increasingly competitive market.
Professional Skills:
- I learned to plan, organize, prioritize and coordinate tasks and work in a team context.
- I developed my leadership skills (ability to foster a vision, clarify objectives, and energize and inspire others).
- I am prepared with the necessary skills to be successful in my field.