HONORS GRADUATES

Millersville University students are awarded honors in three categories: Departmental Honors, Honors College and University Honors. To qualify for Departmental Honors, a student must complete a thesis written under the supervision of a faculty member. In order to graduate from the University Honors College Program, a student must not only complete designated honors courses and a thesis, but also maintain a grade-point average of at least 3.35 in all honors coursework. Students graduate with University Honors by virtue of their grade-point average. Those who earn averages between 3.50 and 3.74 graduate cum laude; those who earn averages between 3.75 and 3.94 graduate magna cum laude; while those who earn averages between 3.95 and 4.0 graduate summa cum laude, the highest earned academic honor the University can bestow.

The Reverend Lewis Merwin Hobbs Medallion/Dr. Dominick '53 and Mrs. Helen DiNunzio Award

Seniors who are graduating summa cum laude receive this special medallion. The award has been made possible by a gift from Dr. Dominick '53 and Mrs. Helen DiNunzio.

and School of Social Work

Patrick Leahy '97

Senior Advisor for Government Affairs and Public Policy

U.S. Election Assistance Commission

Patrick Leahy '97 has a background in strategic communications, program management and public policy. With more than two decades of service in the legislative and executive branches of the U.S. government, Leahy has extensive experience in the public sector.

Leahy has worked for several members of Congress in the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate. He has also served as the director of intergovernmental affairs at the U.S. Department of Commerce. His experience includes in-depth engagement with complex issues ranging from free trade agreements to immigration reform to policies assisting Americans with disabilities.

Currently, Leahy serves as the Senior Advisor for Government Affairs and Public Policy at the U.S. Election Assistance Commission. His expertise at the Commission is aided by prior work at the U.S. Committee on House Administration. He was instrumental in drafting and enacting the Help America Vote Act, which provided sweeping election reforms nationwide. His focus at the EAC includes implementing new government affairs strategies, guiding the Clearinghouse Awards program, and assisting election officials and voters with disabilities. He is accompanied at work by his guide dog Hogan, a six-year-old yellow Labrador retriever.

Blind since birth, Leahy has encountered obstacles, but he has not let that limit his life. Amongst other endeavors, he has served as a presidential appointee to increase employment for people with disabilities, accepted a leadership role on the Guiding Eyes for the Blind Graduate Council, and volunteered as a member of the Washington DC Aid Association for the Blind. In addition, his efforts to promote fitness for kids with disabilities have been profiled on NBC's "Today Show" and featured in The Washington Post Magazine.

Leahy graduated with honors from Millersville with political science and history majors, was the MU Student Senate president and wrestled at the 'Ville. He also served on the Millersville University Alumni Board of Directors for several years.

During his free time, Leahy volunteers with kids who have disabilities, goes to the gym and performs stand-up comedy. He lives in Washington, D.C.

We have a tradition of giving here at Millersville University. Since 1866, each graduating class has promoted a philanthropic spirit by providing students an opportunity to leave their legacy at the University they call home. The graduating class of 2023 continues this tradition by giving back to our alma mater through the programs, departments, and teams we love and that have had a positive impact on our Millersville experiences. In appreciation and recognition of our educational experience at Millersville University, The Class of 2023 resolved to contribute to the Millersville University Scholarship Fund, and other programs of personal significance.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

A Brief History of Millersville

Millersville has the distinction of being Pennsylvania's first state-owned university, founded in 1855 as a normal school. In the mid-19th century, normal schools were developed throughout the East as a way to train teachers for the country's fast-growing new public schools. In Lancaster County, James P. Wickersham was in charge of the public schools and was convinced of the need for training programs for teachers. He held his own program, a teachers institute, in the little borough of Millersville. After its success, he then convinced the town fathers who had built the school to permit it to be used instead as a permanent normal school.

For the next 100 years, Millersville's purpose was to prepare teachers, and it did so with great success. Its reputation as an institution of excellence was established during the period when it was operating two-year and later four-year programs to prepare the individuals who taught the children of this Commonwealth.

Over the years, the school's name changed several times. Wickersham called it the Lancaster County Normal School. In 1859, when it was four years old, the school was officially recognized by the state legislature, and its name became The First Pennsylvania State Normal School. That lengthy title was gradually changed by usage to Millersville State Normal School. It was known by several other names before 1959, when the name was changed to Millersville State College, and soon to follow were a great many new four-year baccalaureate programs in the arts and sciences. Also added were master's degree programs, at first in teacher education and later in many other fields. On July 1, 1983, the college became Millersville University of Pennsylvania, and the 14 state-owned colleges became the State System of Higher Education.

Millersville University Today

During Millersville's evolution from a normal school to a university, its reputation as a good training ground for teachers has not diminished. Teacher certification programs are available across all schools in Special Education, Elementary and Early Childhood Education, a wide selection of Secondary Education programs, Technology and Engineering Education, Art Education and Music Education.

The College of Education and Human Services is home to the following departments: Educational Foundations; Early, Middle and Exceptional Education; Psychology; and Wellness and Sport Sciences, as well as the School of Social Work.

The College of Science and Technology is comprised of the following departments: Applied Engineering, Safety & Technology; Biology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Earth Sciences; Geography; Mathematics; Wehrheim School of Nursing and Physics. Offerings in the health fields include Respiratory Therapy; Medical Technology; Nuclear Medicine Technology; Pre-Athletic Training; Pre-Med; Pre-Optometry; Pre-Pharmacy and Pre-Podiatry.

The College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences is the home of the liberal arts disciplines in humanities and social sciences, including the departments of Art and Design; Communication and Theatre; Criminology, Sociology and Anthropology; Economics; English and World Languages; Government, Policy and Law; History; Language and Culture Studies; and Philosophy, as well as the Tell School of Music. The College also offers interdisciplinary programs in African American Studies, Entrepreneurship, International Studies, Latina/o Studies, and Women's and Gender Studies.

Originally established in 2019, the Lombardo College of Business offers majors in Accounting, Business Administration, Finance, Management and Marketing. The College was officially named in 2020 in recognition of Dr. Samuel and Mrs. Dena Lombardo's generosity to both the College and University. This is the first named college in Millersville's 166-year history.

The College of Graduate Studies and Adult Learning was established in fall 2009 following 50 years of graduate program offerings. Today, Millersville offers more than 50 graduate degree and certification programs, and three doctoral programs that serve the needs of adult learners in our community and beyond.

ACADEMIC SYMBOLISM

University College was established at the beginning of the 2022-2023 academic year and is comprised of Academic Advisement and Student Development, the Center for Public Scholarship and Social Change, the Center for Civic Responsibility and Leadership, Experiential Learning and Career Management (ELCM), the Francine G. McNairy Library and Learning Forum, Integrated Studies, Multidisciplinary Studies, the Office of Learning Services, Starfish, Success Coaching, the University Honors College and the Writing Center.

The University's curriculum is continuously studied and adjusted to allow for the development of programs to meet the needs of students. Millersville University's Multidisciplinary Studies (MDST) major is an innovative and flexible program of study that allows students to tailor studies to meet their academic strengths and career goals with careful advisement.

Integrated Studies is an individualized postsecondary education course of study for individuals with intellectual disability that leads to social and professional networks, careers and bright futures. Students receive support from trained personnel, including coaches, mentors, faculty and staff.

Millersville's excellent reputation extends beyond the classroom as well. It has outstanding athletic, intramural and recreational programs. It offers a wide range of cultural activities for both educational and entertainment purposes. The Winter Visual and Performing Arts Center houses the Tell School of Music and state-of-the-art facilities, including performance and recital halls, recording suites and piano labs. The Ware Center in downtown Lancaster offers space for academic studies as well as elegant performance areas and cultural events programs.

The 250-acre main campus is well-tended, and the park-like area around the campus pond is regarded as a special place by students where they can sit and enjoy the outdoors and watch the swans, Miller and S'Ville.

All of these factors contribute to a good deal of pride at Millersville University – pride that parents and friends of graduates rightfully share.

Academic ceremonies are steeped in centuries-old ritual. The elaborate trappings contribute to the pageantry and dignity of the occasion, and convey the continuity of academic tradition from medieval times to the present. Incorporating these traditions unites Millersville University with the community of scholars and institutions of higher learning.

The Academic Procession

The academic procession that begins and ends most academic ceremonies is a descendant of the clerical procession. Millersville University's procession, formed in ranks of two, is led by one of the most senior faculty carrying the University mace, followed by the candidates for degrees, the University faculty, the Council of Trustees and platform party, and the University president and guest speaker.

The Mace

The staff carried at the front of the academic procession is called a mace and represents the authority of the Office of the President.

The University Seal

Millersville University's seal, a gift of the Class of 1916, is worn on a gold chain by the University president.

Academic Attire

The academic regalia has always consisted of three parts: the gown, the hood and the cap. It has traditionally been worn at academic ceremonies as a record of the academic achievement of the participants. Its use originated in the Middle Ages, when all undergraduates were required to wear clerical robes, since students were expected to enter the ranks of the clergy. In this country, a color system was adopted in 1893 to identify the academic discipline in which the degree was earned. Some of the most frequently seen hood colors, and the field of learning represented by each, are white, arts and letters; light blue, education; dark blue, philosophy; golden yellow, science; copper, economics; scarlet, theology; and pink, music. The tassels for bachelor's and master's degrees are usually black, while the tassel of the doctorate cap is usually gold.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
 And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
 O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
