& HUMAN SERVICES

Thursday, March 26 at 7pm, Winter Center
(Biemesderfer Concert Hall)

Dr. Kristy Szobocsan

Kristy Szobocsan, Ed.D., is the Principal at Warwick High School and an alumna of our joint Ed.D. program, cohort 1. She has proudly served the students, staff, and community of the Warwick School District since 2013. Before Warwick, she taught and was an administrator in the School District of Lancaster for seven years.

She is passionate about ensuring everyone understands the impacts of childhood trauma and works tirelessly to develop necessary supports for those impacted by trauma, the focus of her dissertation and an area she provides training on. She teaches a course at a local university as part of their trauma certificate program. She and her husband are blessed with four children and have had the privilege of being foster parents for several years.

WELCOME, DR. SZOBOCSAN!

ANNA FUNK LOCKEY LECTURE IN EDUCATION

Anna Funk Lockey, class of 1925, established an endowed lectureship in education at Millersville University in 1987. The purpose of the Lockey Lecture is to bring distinguished speakers to Millersville's campus to address future teachers, the educational profession, and the community.

Our sincere thanks to Mrs. Lockey and her family, who continue to support the good work of this lecture series.
