Section 5. Areas for Improvement, Weaknesses, and/or Stipulations

Summarize EPP activities and the outcomes of those activities as they relate to correcting the areas cited in the last Accreditation Action/Decision Report. The EPP will continue to report its action and progress on addressing its AFI(s), weaknesses and/or stipulations until the EPP's next CAEP Accreditation Site Review.

CAEP: Areas for Improvement (ITP)

4 Program Impact

Limited data were presented related to completer observation instruments and/or student surveys. (Component 4.2)

Alumni follow up surveys launched by Millersville University to completers in Education programs (N= 74) for undergraduates in 2018-19 confirmed the above assertion. 98% stated their preparation was good or excellent for a teaching job. Of the 2018-19 baccalaureate degree recipients desiring employment, 95.5 percent reported employment within six to ten months after graduation. Within the 85.9 percent of 2018-19 graduates employed full-time, 78.0 percent reported that the position required some college or more, and 79.0 percent reported that the position was related to their major. This breakdown suggests that most respondents were not "underemployed." The average expected gross annual income for recent graduates employed full-time was approximately $42,045, and over 83 percent of graduates reported employment within Pennsylvania. When considering all survey respondents (n = 550), 77.8 percent were only employed, 15.3 percent were employed and advancing their education, and 3.6 percent were only advancing their education. Just 3.3 percent of respondents were neither employed nor advancing their education.

More than 87 percent of 2018-19 graduates rated the quality of education within their major as "good" or "excellent." In addition, over 87 percent of 2018-19 graduates employed full-time rated the quality of education within their major as "good" or "excellent," with 46 percent rating this measure as "excellent." Also, 91 percent of recent graduates seeking to continue their education (e.g., attend graduate school) rated the quality of education within their major as "good" or "excellent," with 56 percent rating this measure as "excellent."

Teacher Evaluation Instrument

The Danielson Framework is a research-based assessment tool used by many Pennsylvania P-12 schools. MU's teacher preparation programs to use an adapted form of the Danielson Framework to assess student teachers. The MU ADAPTED Danielson assessment used in EDHS teacher preparation programs is aligned to CAEP and Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC) standards. The MU adapted assessment lacks one descriptor, Distinguished, that applies to in-service teachers. 87% of students meet the benchmarks on the MODIFIED Danielson Framework.

CAEP: Areas for Improvement (ITP)

4 Program Impact

The EPP provided limited evidence of Employer satisfaction with completers. (Component 4.3)

Employer surveys are launched annually through EDHS. The survey data from 2021-2022 (N= 31), show 100% of employers surveyed "Strongly Agreed" or "Agreed" that MU candidates they employed "exhibited attributes suitable to the profession," "displayed professional behaviors," "provided evidence of their content knowledge and awareness of state standards," "provided evidence of their ability to plan for instruction" and "provided evidence of their ability to assess student learning."

We plan to gather more evidence with focus groups at a Teacher Shortage Summit (May, 2022) and a school partner's data day in Jan/Feb 2023.

Section 6. EPP's Continuous Improvement & Progress on (advanced level) Phase-in Plans and (initial-level) Transition Plans

Please share any continuous improvement initiatives at the EPP, AND (if applicable) provide CAEP with an update on the EPP's progress on its advanced level phase-in plans and/or initial level transition plans.

6.1 Summarize any data-driven EPP-wide or programmatic modifications, innovations, or changes planned, worked on, or completed in the last academic year.

This is an opportunity to share targeted continuous improvement efforts your EPP is proud of. Focus on one to two major efforts the EPP made and the relationship among data examined, changes, and studying the results of those changes.

MU focuses on continuous improvement by seeking to demonstrate growth in student and partner satisfaction with the program. Additionally, MU works to enhance the achievement and certification measures of its completers. The unit annually surveys the previous academic year program completers. Data from principals that employ recent completers are analyzed to measure satisfaction with the PEU completers they employ. Another source of survey data is an analysis of the program provider survey data collected by PDE as completers apply for their initial 1 license. All initial and ADV programs use these data as an opportunity for growth in the areas of their satisfaction in field placement, advisement, being prepared to teach, etc. PDE survey data. MU then contacts completers to hold interviews, and write the report each semester as program improvement.

Regular invitations to school partners for participation in round-table discussions related to field placements.

PDS meetings occur annually for this purpose. Early, Middle and Exceptional Education (EMEE) department held this meeting with school partners in Fall 2021.

Teacher Talk was started by the Director of Field Services for mentor teachers to discuss MU student participation in their classrooms and receive PD on what MU expects. Zoom meetings for one hour monthly.

MU also has an assessment committee comprised of the Associate Dean and various faculty members from the PEU. They meet monthly to share data across programs. Meeting notes along with other program data are available to all members of the PEU within the D2L.

MU also has several phase in plans and updated progress is listed below. Some progress on these phase in plans has been slowed by the pandemic and a cyber attack MU experienced in March, 2021.

Exhibit A.3.1 A recruitment of candidates into advanced programs. Monitoring of either employment outlooks for advanced program areas or progress for candidate recruitment into program areas. Use of technology and stakeholders to increase co-construction of recruitment efforts.

-ADV programs leading to supervisory and principal certification have offered more courses with fully online options. During the 2021-2022 AY, EDSU 701 was approved as a DL course, and EDSU 700 and 703 will be approved as DL courses in Fall 2022.

-ADV program, ACTE Master's program continues to grow in enrollment. This program is fully online, and it added two additional concentrations during the 2021-2022 AY. All ADV programs revised their websites during 2021-2022 when the access to them returned after the cyber attack in March, 2021. Enrollment data for AY 2022-2023 will be how to evaluate whether or not additional recruitment efforts correlate with a growth in enrollment. Finally, several programs (i.e. ACTE, EdD and LDTL) created new flyers to distribute to a list of local superintendents during Spring, 2022 for recruitment purposes.

Exhibit B 3.1 evidence that diversity of admitted and completing candidates is given explicit attention across advanced programs. One program in particular, the LDTL program, developed a principal residency program in conjunction with a local urban school district using PA Department of Education funds awarded over 3 years (2018-2021). A main goal of the grant award specified recruitment of underrepresented candidates for ADV programs and principal certifications. One-third of the first cohort of principal residents was African American. One half of the second cohort of principal residents was Latinx.

Exhibit A. 3.4 high standard for content knowledge in the field of specialization. Praxis II data: Educators applying for Instructional areas that cover PK-12 must pass the Praxis Fundamental Subjects: Content Knowledge test AND the appropriate Praxis subject test. PDE grants a qualifying score for the content area tests for all certifications. The qualifying score calculates the pass rate for the content tests based on the overall GPA from the preparing institution. For example, EDHS social studies grades 7-12 test-takers averaged 71.8 test score pass rates without the qualifying pass rate granted for GPA standing. The application of the GPA qualifying score increased the average pass rate to 83%. This qualifying score break impacted Math 7-12, Social Studies 7-12, and Art programs. All other programs' average pass rate was well over the required 80% pass rate. For the majority of programs, Millersville University's (MU) content test score averages are above the state average scores. For example, MU 5 yr scores for Chemistry grades 7-12 test averaged 89% pass rate compared to the state average of 53.45%, PECT tests for PreK-8 SPED (Mod 1) test MU average is 86% compared to state average of 83%, Reading Specialist (ADV)

Exhibit C. 3.4 Applications of technology. Many of the programs at MU, especially ADV programs, have worked to include applications of technology. As stated earlier, the ACTE MEEd program is offered fully online. In addition, one of the concentrations of this program is Online Teaching. In addition, one course within the ADV programs leading to principal and supervisory certification has the students, in groups 3 or 4, create a podcast episode interviewing school district leaders. This project was instituted in Summer 2020 for the first time.

Exhibit D.3.4 applications of dispositions, laws, codes of ethics, and professional standards appropriate for the field of specialization. During AY 2021-2022, PEU faculty wrote 105 professional development plans (PDPs) as a way to support struggling pre-service teachers at all levels.

ADV programs A3 and 4 (progress on many of these plans as created from the site visit need modification in the '22-'23 academic year based on delays from the pandemic and MU's cyber attack in March, 2021)

All ADV programs continue to align their SPA standards. The data from '20-'21 are listed by program: Principal - 100% pass rate; School Psychology - 100% pass rate; Supervisory Certificate - 100%; School Counseling - 100%. MU plans to hold a Data Day in January/February 2023 to meet with school partners including those that serve in an advisory capacity to ADV programs. The existence of the pandemic and the stress levels of the past two years of a pandemic made meeting with these partners untenable.
