

Dual MSW/MEd in Sport Management

Athlete mental well-being is best served through a collaborative process of engaging all available resources, including social workers, physical health, counseling services, disability services and community agencies. Identifying available resources and integrating strong professional working relationships across these areas are critical to ensure that professionals are informed and respond quickly and effectively.

Earn two valuable graduate degrees in three years. A Master of Social Work /Master of Education in Sport Management enables graduates to work in a variety of human service and athletic programs and agencies in an advanced clinical and/or administrative capacity, including jobs in professional, collegiate and amateur athletic arenas. This growing area of practice is addressed by this innovative and unique dual degree.

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

Millersville and Shippensburg Universities are jointly offering a Master of Social Work (MSW) degree program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). It is designed for applicants who have earned their Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) degree as well as for career changers. The program was developed to support both the full-time student and the working professional. State-of-the-art technology permits students to acquire social work knowledge, skills and values through multiple educational methods, including traditional campus classes, teleconferencing and web-based activities. Because this is a joint program, students benefit from the quality faculty and resources of both universities.

MEd SPORT MANAGEMENT

The Department of Wellness and Sport Sciences offers the M.Ed. in sport management. The degree program is designed to meet the needs of full-time students as well as working professionals, including athletic directors, coaches, athletic trainers and sport industry professionals.

Dual Degree Admission

Students seeking the dual degree must be formally admitted to the MSW/MEdSM program. Students may start in the MSW program and apply to the dual degree program at any time during their first year in the MSW program. Students seeking the dual degree must complete a practicum with a focus on social work, as well as a practicum with a focus on sport management.

Flexible Program Options

Regular Standing (BSW or non BSW students)

The dual MSW/MEdSM program can be completed in three years full time (up to four courses per semester) or part time in four years (two courses per semester)

Advanced Standing (BSW students only)

Applicants who hold a BSW degree from a 7SW9 accredited institution and who meet other admission requirements may be eligible for the Advanced Standing program. This could allow the applicant to complete the dual degree program in two years full time or three years part time.

Internships

Students will have the opportunity to complete a social work focused internship and a sport focused internship during their course of study.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Complete applications received by February 1 will be given full consideration. Applications received after February 1 will be considered if seats are available.
