

Summer INSTITUTES

Millersville University

EDFN 586

RESTORATIVE PRACTICES FOR EDUCATORS

INSTRUCTOR: DR. NAKEIHA PRIMUS

JULY 20-24 • 9 AM - 3 PM

This institute engages educators in an in-depth exploration of restorative practices as a framework for fostering inclusive, equitable, and relational learning environments.

Through guided reflection and collaborative planning, participants will develop a restorative practices philosophy, design strategies for applying restorative methods in their classrooms and schools to enhance both academic and social-emotional learning outcomes.

advō is an integral partner for this summer institute

RESTORATIVE STRATEGIES

Examine the theoretical foundation and evidence based strategies for restorative approaches

IMPLEMENTATION PLAN

Develop a restorative practices implementation plan tailored to their professional role for the upcoming academic year.

ROLE SPECIFIC FOCUS

Focus restorative plan on classroom management, pedagogy, or leadership and support roles.

www.millersville.edu/gsal/institutes