

Thaddeus Lydia Hamilton
Stevens & Smith
Center for History and Democracy

WHAT DOES FREEDOM MEAN TO YOU?

EXPLORING INQUIRY, PRIMARY SOURCES, AND LOCAL HISTORY IN THE CLASSROOM

INSTRUCTOR: DR. BURKE

A weeklong professional learning experience at LancasterHistory, designed for educators of grades 3–12. Grounded in the compelling question “What does freedom mean to you?”, this institute immerses participants in problem-based learning as they explore how themes of freedom, agency, and democracy have shaped Lancaster’s past and continue to inform its present.

HIGHLIGHTS

- ✓ Engage with historians, archivists and fellow educators
- ✓ Site-based learning at LancasterHistory and the Stevens & Smith Center Collaborate with LancasterHistory librarians to uncover valuable resources.
- ✓ Design a classroom-ready inquiry unit integrating authentic history

JULY 13–17
9AM – 3PM

Off Campus at LancasterHistory
Downtown & President Ave.

www.millersville.edu/gsal/summerinstitutes

