Title: Student Office Assistant (General)
Role: Student
Department: Office of International Program and Services

Basic function: Under the direct supervision of IPS staff, student office assistants are often the first point of contact for all students, faculty, staff, and guests visiting the office. Student Office Assistants support the day-to-day operations and work independently and/or as a team to accomplish the overall mission and goals of the unit. Specialty areas include, but are not limited to, event specialists, public relations and social media assistance, and study abroad peer mentorship. Paid training and professional development are required prior to the beginning of each term. The pay rate is $7.25 per hour.

Duties and Responsibilities – The Student Office Assistant Will:
• Serve as first line of communication via phone, e-mail and in-person by answering inquiries from students, parents and faculty and staff. Provide excellent customer service.
• Assist in monitoring and restocking-needs of office supplies; in receiving and distributing mail
• Filing and scanning documentation, compose correspondence to students and others concerning requests for information or processing of forms; mail standard response letters (i.e., form letters) for routine requests.
• Promote international opportunities by making direct and indirect contact with a wide range of students through on-campus promotion.
• Assist with study abroad or other administrative tasks, such as paperwork management, and general advising.
• Interacting with international students and scholars, and assisting in their initial transition and ongoing integration at MU.
• Assist with the tracking of student data related to study abroad participation, and international enrollment.
• Make deliveries around campus, dropping off and picking up materials to and from departments and off campus.
• Other duties and projects as assigned, requested, or deemed necessary by IPS staff.

Qualifications:
Required:
Student Assistant positions are open to current MU students who are in good academic standing. Candidates must demonstrate interest in intercultural issues, communicate effectively and work as a part of a team. Must be highly organized, possess ability to multi-task and to complete projects with attention to accuracy. Candidates must have a positive attitude, be friendly, patient, and sensitive to culturally and linguistically diverse students. Students work approximately between 10-20 hours per week. Hours are scheduled Monday-Friday during business hours. However, flexibility is needed to meet the needs of the office with evening and weekend hours to support special events and programming. Must maintain confidentiality of student information.
