NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION SCHEDULE
SUNDAY, JANUARY 19, 2020

10:00 a.m. Welcome
Student Memorial Center (SMC), CSIL Circle (Rm 118)
We’d like to take a few minutes to welcome you to your new community and to share some thoughts on your start at Millersville!

10:30 a.m. Succeeding at College: A Student Leader Perspective
SMC, Rm 118 E
So what does it take to become a successful college student? We’ve asked a few of our student leaders to share their stories of struggles and successes. Through their stories, you will come to recognize your own capabilities to persevere and succeed at Millersville University.

10:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Marauder OneCard processing
Univ. Services, Boyer Hall
If you have not yet submitted a photo for your Marauder OneCard, please be sure to do so between these hours. A member of the orientation team will be happy to help direct you to the location.

11:00 – Noon Quick ‘Bites’
SMC, Reighard MPR
These ten-minute, discussion-style sessions will provide you with a brief overview of each topic and give you the opportunity to have your personal questions answered. Come and go from table to table as you please. And what would a program titled ‘Quick Bites’ be without some food? Enjoy some appetizers and drinks from our dining and catering services.

Classroom Survival 101
Transitioning from high school to college can be overwhelming, but classes don’t have to be! Millersville has a variety of class sizes, types, helping resources, and professors that are more than willing to get you where you need to go! Questions about textbooks, profs, coursework help, or anything else involving your time in the classroom? We have the answers.

Don’t find Adversity in Diversity
Millersville strives for diversity and inclusion as a way to better understand and appreciate all members of our community. The differences in race, religious beliefs, gender identity, sexuality, and cultures on campus provide a rich tapestry of involvement opportunities for you. We’ll discuss the clubs, commissions, organizations, and programs which can help inform, embrace, and educate you as a new student.

Getting Involved
How do I get Involved on Campus? We’re glad you asked! College is more than just excelling in the classroom. Millersville has over 150 clubs and organizations representing a range of interests from Greek Life to spirituality on campus to get involved. Don’t think there is a club that best fits your passion? Students may establish their own clubs on campus through the Student Government Association. Stop by the Get Involved table to learn how you can get to work!

Making Housing Home
From having your first roommate to living on your own for the first time, housing can be one of the biggest fears for new college students. With a little help from the Orientation Planning Committee, you will know all of the tips and tricks to getting along with roommates, helpful items to have in your dorm room, and have all of your housing questions answered. With these tips and tricks, you will quickly be able to make yourself at home!

Navigating the Dining Hall
How many eateries are there on campus? How does my meal plan work? When will I be able to eat? From the Upper Deck to the Cove, learn about each eatery here on Campus! Get all of your questions answered, and discover all things you need to know about food here at Millersville.

Parking Do’s and Don’ts
Millersville University is one of few schools that allows their first year students to have a car on campus, and at a reasonable cost! Find out the tips and tricks current Millersville students have to gaining the best parking spots on campus, and which parking pass would give you the best bang for your buck.

Staying Safe on Campus
Millersville is rated among the Top 30 Safest College Towns in America (www.safewise.com)! This is due to the dedicated service of the University Police and their cooperation with community law enforcement. Millersville University is also the first and most active university in the PASSHE system utilizing the Live Safe campus safety app. We’ll preview the Live Safe app, discuss MUAlert and answer your questions about personal wellbeing on campus.
