Student Code of Conduct Process

Violation Occurs

Incident Report/FYI form is submitted.

Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards reviews the case.

Director determines whether a violation has taken place and decides who will hear the case.

Appeal hearing is held by University Conduct Board.

If student wishes to appeal the process or the sanction, an Administrative Appeal Hearing Form must be submitted to the VPSAEM office.

Administrative hearing will be held - If found responsible, sanctions will be issued.

Cases will be heard by Director, Assistant Director, Residential Area Directors or Student Conduct & Community Standards Title IX Panel.

The decision rendered by the University Conduct Board is final.

Appeals to the President can be made only in Title IX cases.

 Appeals to the President can be made only in Title IX cases.