

Lancaster City Mayor, Danene Sorace, welcomes faculty, staff, students and community members to the Education and Poverty Conference.

EDUCATION AND POVERTY CONFERENCE

The Education and Poverty Conference featured a collaboration with the Lancaster Coalition to Combat Poverty for its first annual retreat, roundtables of 12 MU faculty with research agendas surrounding education and poverty gathered and presentations from 40 MU master’s and doctoral students in educational leadership. Over 350 people attended conference events including university faculty and students and practitioners in the field of PK-12 education. The funding from the Positive Energy Grant helped to ensure that this conference would be free and open to over 150 MU students and faculty.

THE POSITIVE ENERGY FUND
 Millersville University