Athletic Coaching

The minor in athletic coaching provides students with the theory and practical experiences that enable them to coach athletics at elementary, high school and collegiate levels, as well as youth sports programs.

DEGREES/CONCENTRATIONS

ATHLETIC COACHING MINOR

The minor requires completion of 18 credits. Undergraduates are provided with opportunities to further their professional growth and development, and the minor in athletic coaching will lead to opportunities for certification through the American Sport Education Program (ASEP) in Coaching Principles.

Students will gain the principles of coaching, behavior, teaching, physical training and management, which are the essentials to becoming a successful coach. The specific outcomes will be:

- 1. Define who students are as coaches i.e., their coaching philosophy, objectives and style;
- 2. Enhance communication and motivational skills;
- 3. Become more effective teachers and trainers; and
- 4. Improve team, relationship and risk-management skills.

CERTIFICATIONS:

Students who successfully complete the coaching minor have the opportunity to receive the following certifications:

- 1. America-Sport Education Program (ASEP) certification
- 2. American Red Cross certifications in CPR, first aid and AED
- 3. CardiacWise 2.0 Sudden Cardiac Death Certification
- 4. National Federation of States High School Associations Concussion in Sport certification

Students who complete the athletic coaching minor will also satisfy the PIAA-required courses for coaching in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

"If you are interested in coaching at any level and love learning about sports while majoring in a different field of study, the coaching minor at Millersville is something to really think about. I highly suggest it."

ABOUT OUR GRADUATES

Many of our graduates have gone on to coach as high as the collegiate level and taken athletic administrative jobs. Some of Millersville University's current coaching staff have come through our program, such as Jon Shehan, head coach, baseball. Alum Branden Lippy is the athletic director, Lampeter-Strasburg High School. She also played women's basketball for Millersville University.

"People think being a coach is just showing up for practice, but it's not. With this minor you learn all the paperwork, legal issues and liabilities that come with being a coach."

 Taylor Frombaugh, Biology with athletic coaching minor, '15
