M.Ed. in Assessment, Curriculum and Teaching: Online Teaching Concentration

The M.Ed. in Assessment , Curriculum and Teaching (ACTE) at Millersville University is designed with the busy educator in mind. The fully online Online Teaching concentration will help you advance the knowledge and skills needed by today's educators.

CONCENTRATION

ONLINE TEACHING

The Online Teaching concentration is designed for educators interested in learning the foundational tools and pedagogy for blended and online environments. With the explosion of online and blended instructional opportunities for students and teachers, this program helps prepare graduates to design and facilitate online classes by ensuring they can:

- Demonstrate proficiency in the use of multimedia, Web 2.0 and current and emerging technologies for assessment, curriculum development and instruction.
- Examine innovative teaching methods to foster student learning for different modes of delivery (face-to-face, flipped, blended, fully online).
- Apply the phases of an instructional design model to the development of curriculum that is reflective of mode of delivery.
- Create varied and targeted assessments that effectively measure student learning aligned to content standards and leverage emergent instructional models.
- Develop methods of evaluating and improving curricular design through the use of student assessment data.
