

PROMOTING RIGOROUS AND INTERDISCIPLINARY MENTAL HEALTHCARE EDUCATION (PRIME)

The purpose of the PRIME program is to develop and enhance clinical training opportunities for graduate students in the MSW and Clinical Psychology programs to improve the distribution and supply of the behavioral health workforce in high-need and high-demand areas and with underserved populations.

Enhanced Clinical Training Opportunities in High-Need Areas

EXPAND YOUR PROFESSIONAL SKILLS IN BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

The PRIME program offers specialized interdisciplinary training opportunities in the following areas:

- cultural competency
- integrating technology into clinical services (such as telehealth)
- working with children, adolescents, and transitional-aged youth and adults at risk for behavioral health disorders
