Millersville University Editorial Style Guide

To achieve a consistent and high quality standard of writing, the Office of University Communications developed an editorial style guide for faculty, staff and students at Millersville University. This guide addresses style issues specific to Millersville including the official names of campus buildings/locations, lecture titles and more. The Office of University Communications recommends following the Associated Press Stylebook as a secondary reference source for writing. For questions, please contact Katelynn Hartman, assistant director of communications, at Katelynn.Hartman@millersville.edu.

For more information, check out Millersville University’s organizational charts: getinvolved.millersville.edu/organizations
Millersville University of Pennsylvania

- When writing for a formal or outside audience (e.g. news release), use the full name, “Millersville University of Pennsylvania,” on first reference. Subsequent references may be “Millersville University” or simply “Millersville” if the meaning is clearly understood to be the institution, not the town.
- If using “University” to refer to Millersville University, capitalize University.
- When writing for internal publications, there is no need to write “Millersville University of Pennsylvania.”

Academic Degrees

See Degree

- For bachelor’s and master’s degree, lower case and use an apostrophe.

  Examples: She has a bachelor’s degree in English. He has his master’s degree in biology. She is taking a master’s level course.

  Note: Include “degree” after bachelor’s or master’s when writing for an outside audience (e.g., news releases, the Review magazine)

- There is no possessive in Bachelor of Arts, Master of Science or associate degree.
- Use caps for proper names of degrees.

  Example: Mark earned a Master of Education degree in special education.

- Use such abbreviations as A.A., B.A., B.S., M.A., M.Ed. and Ph.D. only when the need to identify many individuals by degree on first reference would make the preferred form cumbersome. Use these abbreviations only after a full name – never after just a last name, and set off by commas.

Academic Departments

See Department

- When “department” comes first, capitalize. Example: Department of History.
- When “department” follows, do not capitalize, except for words that are proper nouns or adjectives.

  Examples: history department; English department

- At Millersville University, academic units are called departments.
Academic Sessions/Semesters
- Do not capitalize; write sessions as follows:
  - spring semester
  - summer session
  - fall semester
  - winter session

Academic and Administrative Titles
- Capitalize and spell out formal titles such as chancellor, chairman, dean, etc., when they precede a name. Lowercase elsewhere.

  Examples: Chairman Richard Smith will conduct the meeting. Richard Smith, chairman, will conduct the meeting.

- Instructor in (not of).
- Professor of (not in).
- Research associate in (not of).
- Director of

Acronyms
- Spell out full name on first reference and place the acronym in parentheses only if the full name will be referenced again.

Acting/Interim
- When an individual is still in a position and assuming another title, “acting” is used.
- When no one else is in the position, the term “interim” is used.
- Always lowercase, but capitalize any formal title that may follow before a name.

  Example: acting Mayor Peter Barry.

Addresses
- Use the abbreviations Ave., Blvd. and St. only with a numbered address.

  Example: 207 N. George St.

- Spell out and capitalize when the address is part of a formal street name without a number.

  Example: Pennsylvania Avenue.
• Lowercase and spell out when used alone or with more than one street name.
  Example: Massachusetts and Pennsylvania avenues.

• All similar words (alley, drive, road, terrace, etc.) are always spelled out. Capitalize them when part of a formal name without a number; lowercase when used alone or with two or more names.

• Always use figures for an address number.
  Example: 207 N. George St.

• Use periods in the abbreviation P.O. for box numbers.
  Example: P.O. Box 1002

Advisor
• Use advisor not adviser; however, both references are acceptable.

Affect/Eff ect
See Effect/Affect

• Affect, as a verb, means to influence.
  Example: The game will affect the standings.

• Avoid affect as a noun.

• Effect, as a verb, means to cause.
  Example: He will effect many changes in the company.

• Effect, as a noun, means result.
  Example: He miscalculated the effect of his actions. It was a law of little effect.

Ages
• Always use figures for people and animals.
• Use hyphens for ages expressed as adjectives before a noun or as substitutes for a noun.

Examples: A 5-year-old boy; the boy is 5 years old. The boy, 7, has a sister, 10. The woman is in her 30s (no apostrophe).
Alumnus
- Alumnus, alumni, alumna, alumnae.
- Use alumnus (alumni in the plural) when referring to a male or when the gender is unknown.
- Use alumna (alumnae in the plural) for similar references to a female.
- Use alumni when referring to a group of men and women.

- Includes the following components:
  o Center for Sustainability
  o Center for Public Scholarship and Social Change
    o Polling & Research Office
  o Center for Civic Responsibility & Leadership
    o Policy Research Shop

Commissions (Office of the President)

Commission on the Status of Women
- The President’s Commission on the Status of Women is the umbrella organization that monitors and improves the campus climate for women. The commission promotes gender equity in sports and awards grants from the Women’s Issues Endowment. It is instrumental in recruiting students and faculty for the State System Women’s Consortium’s Annual Undergraduate Women’s Leadership Institute.
- Website: millersville.edu/~wcomm/

Commission on Cultural Diversity
- Established in 1997, the commission’s objective is to foster the achievement of racial and cultural diversity on the University campus. Representatives from the campus, including faculty, staff and students, and the surrounding community serve on the commission and advise the president on matters pertaining to cultural diversity in general and underrepresented racial groups in particular.
- Website: millersville.edu/cdicomm/

Commission on Gender & Sexual Diversity
- The mission of the Commission on Gender and Sexual Diversity (GSD) is to foster a university climate that promotes equity, inclusion and affirmation for all people representative within the spectrum of gender and sexual expression (e.g. are or are perceived to be lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, transgender/transsexual, questioning/queer, intersex, allies/androgynous/asexual (LGBTQIA), etc.) at Millersville University.
- Website: millersville.edu/gsdcomm/
Comma (,)

- Use commas to separate elements in a series, but do not put a comma before the conjunction in a simple series.

  Example: The flag is red, white and blue. He would nominate Tom, Dick or Harry.

Commencement

- Millersville University holds three commencement ceremonies:
  - One commencement ceremony in December (undergraduate only).
  - Two commencement ceremonies in May (graduate and undergraduate).

Composition Titles

- Capitalize the following: Newspapers, computer game titles, movie titles, opera titles, play titles, poem titles, album and song titles, radio and television program titles and works of art.
- Italicize book titles, journal titles.
- Use quotation marks around lecture, speech and song titles, journal articles and books that are primarily catalogs, which include almanacs, directories, dictionaries, encyclopedias, gazetteers, handbooks and similar publications.
- Capitalize the principal words including prepositions and conjunctions of four or more letters.
- Capitalize an article—the, a, an—or words of fewer than four letters if it is the first or last word in the title.
- Translate a foreign title into English unless a work is known to the American public by its foreign name.

  Example: Rousseau’s War, not Rousseau’s La Guerre

Corporate University (CorpU)

- A graduate-level option for nonprofit and for-profit organizations to guide decisions on training and professional development opportunities

Website: millersville.edu/graduate/programs/noncreditprograms/corporate-university/index.php
Council of Trustees (COT)

- The trustees are an active, valuable supporting force for Millersville University. The President frequently consults with trustees on University issues and they assist with public relations and advancement. Trustees further support the University by serving actively on the Strategic Planning and Resource Council, the campaign cabinet and the boards of affiliated organizations. They also participate in diversity workshops and other University events.
- Website: millersville.edu/president/trustees.php

Course Titles

- For official course titles, capitalize the principal words.

  Example: Students enrolled in the Civil War and Reconstruction course traveled to Gettysburg to experience the Civil War first-hand. In the Advanced Reporting course, students learn the history of journalism.

Courtesy Titles

- Refer to both men and women by first and last name, without courtesy titles, on first reference.

  Example: Susan Brown or Robert Brown.
- Refer to both men and women by last name, without courtesy titles, in subsequent references.
- When it is necessary to distinguish between two people who use the same last name, as in married couples or brothers and sisters, use the first and last name on all references.
- Use Mr., Miss, Ms. or Mrs. only in direct quotations or in special situations, such as mailings and name tags.
- When a woman specifically requests it, for example, where a woman prefers to be known as Mrs. Susan Brown or Ms. Susan Brown.
- In cases where a person’s gender is not clear from the first name or from the story’s context, indicate the gender by using he or she in subsequent references.
Dates

- Use month followed by day: October 10.
- Do not use European style: 10 October (day, month).
- Do not use comma between month and year: In December 2007, he graduated.

Days of the Week

- Capitalize; do not abbreviate, except when needed in tabular format.

Degree

- For internal publications, such as the Exchange Newsletter and the Review Magazine: When referencing someone who has graduated from Millersville, write as follows: John Foster ’78 (apostrophe followed by year of degree).
- If the individual also received their master’s degree from Millersville, write as follows: John Foster ’78, ’82M (separate bachelor’s and master’s degrees with a comma; apostrophe followed by year of master’s degree followed by an “M”).
- Do not use this format for news releases or external publications, with the exception of the Exchange Newsletter and the Review Magazine (See Academic Degree).

Department

See Academic Departments

- When “department” comes first, capitalize. Example: Department of History
- When “department” follows, do not capitalize, except for words that are proper nouns or adjectives.

Examples: history department, English department

- At Millersville University, academic units are called departments.

Department of Campus Life

- Formally the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership (CSIL)
- (millersville.edu/campuslife)

Doctor

- In first reference, use Dr. as a title when someone has earned a Ph.D. In second and subsequent references, use last name only.
Dutcher Hall
- Used for University Theatre performances, classes and similar projects.
- Includes Rafters Theatre.

Effect/Affect
See Affect/Effect
- Affect, as a verb, means to influence.
  Example: The game will affect the standings.
- Avoid affect as a noun.
- Effect, as a verb, means to cause.
  Example: He will effect many changes in the company.
- Effect, as a noun, means result.
  Example: He miscalculated the effect of his actions.

e.g. and i.e.
See i.e. and e.g.
- Use e.g. when designating for example.
- Use i.e. when designating such as.

Email
- One word, not e-mail. Use lowercase.

Emeritus
- Added to formal titles to denote individuals who have been awarded emeritus status by the Council of Trustees.
- When used, place emeritus after the formal title, in keeping with the general practice of academic institutions.
- Plural: emeriti.
- Male/Female: emeritus (male); emerita (female).
Entrepreneurial Leadership Center
  • Website: millersville.edu/entrepreneurship/elc/index.php

Figure
  • The symbol for a number.
    Example: The figure 5.

Freshmen, freshman
  • Freshmen (noun plural).
    Example: Patricia and Patrick are freshmen at Millersville; the incoming freshmen class bonded during orientation.
  • Freshman (noun): A student in the first year of college. Example: Shelly is a freshman at Millersville University.
  • Freshman (adjective), always singular.
    Example: Megan took an interesting freshman seminar course on ethnic studies at Millersville University.

  o A directory of all official Millersville University social media sites can be found at millersville.edu/socialmedia
• Pinterest: One word, always capitalize; used as a virtual pinboard.
• YouTube: One word; capitalize both the “Y” and “T;” used to share videos.

Abbreviations
• Replace “and” with ampersand (&), NOT plus (+) to save characters when necessary
• Use dash (-) instead of “to” to shorten times.
• Use short date form (5/19 or 5/19/2016)
• Shorten links to ‘bit.ly’ or ‘ow.ly’ links
• If space is needed, periods may be cut from time

Dates and Time
• Use “to” between times (2 pm to 4 pm) unless space is needed. Then use a dash. (2-4 pm).
• Write out full words for days of the week (Monday, Tuesday) and use dates (5/19) to save space or reference dates in advance. You may cut the year from the date if the event is happening in the current calendar year.
• Months can be abbreviated (Jan., Feb.) for space.
• Time-stamp the beginning of weather and emergency posts. When posting updates, include the newest post as a comment on previous posts.
Hashtags

- Capitalize individual words within a hashtag
- Official MU hashtags include:
  - #VillePride
  - #HoistTheColors
  - #VilleGrad20XX (commencement)
- Other frequently used hashtags
  - #MarauderMonday
  - #ThrowbackThursday
  - #FoodieFriday
  - #VilleXX (freshmen orientation)
- Before using a trending hashtag, make sure you understand how the hashtag is being used and if tweets/Instagram posts using that hashtag are appropriate for your audience.
- Try to use hashtags in an organic way whenever possible, but it is OK to tag them at the end of your tweet if you need to reach a certain audience.

Profile Pictures/Imagery

- Make sure all photos follow the University Style Guide
- All profile picture should be the same, exceptions made for special events (i.e. the one day give)

Punctuation

- Use a colon and a space before a link.
- An exclamation point or question mark can also introduce a link.
- Use a single exclamation point to signal excitement.
- In VERY RARE instances (major celebrity appearances, top awards, international recognition, etc.) multiple exclamation points may be used (but think judiciously about whether the situation warrants more than one).
- Use an ellipsis (three periods, no spaces) to show where something has been omitted (as in a quote that's been shortened) OR (in rare instances) to signal suspense.

  Example: Toxic sludge, childhood cancer, government neglect...and a Pulitzer Prize!

Scheduled Posts

- Makes sure to schedule posts, but be aware of last minute changes or news that may affect the post

  Example: cancel a “Happy Friday” post if there was a tragedy the night/day before
Twitter

- Twitter: One word, always capitalize; used as a real-time information network
- Include any relevant mentions, as long as the account is active.
- Avoid using more than 3 mentions in a single post, unless doing a #FollowFriday/#FF post – then as many relevant mentions as can fit are allowable.
- Use MT signal when a quoted tweet has been modified or shortened. Use RT if retweeting someone else’s post, and leaving another comment prior to the RT.
- When quoting tweets always add something new before the RT or MT.

  Example: Thanks—trying these now! MT @ACCTTransfer Morning ACC! Check out 8 things to do every day to be better at work (and life) ht.ly/xCy5h

- Try for 1-2 native RTs (not quoting) per day.
- Try to include at least one hashtag per post. Avoid using 3+ hashtags in a single post.
- Cite the source of an article or news item by tagging the relevant account at the end of the message in brackets, or saying “via @sourcename”.

  Example: Harlem’s all-black WWI regiment fought to convince America to live up to its democratic promise: http://bit.ly/1sbrdAp [@nytimes] or via @nytimes

- If you would like the entire following to see a reply to a tweet, put a period (.) before the username/handle

Facebook | Google+

- Facebook: One word, always capitalize; used for social networking.
- Use line breaks
- Include any relevant mentions, as long as the account is active and the names of the mentioned accounts aren’t so long as to be cumbersome.
- Delete the text URL from your post if displaying the link preview.
- For a post where you don’t want the preview to show, use a shortened link (bit.ly) in the message itself. However, it’s use the link preview if you are attaching some sort of other media (picture/video) to your post.
Instagram

- Instagram: One word, always capitalize; used for photo-sharing.
- Make sure photos are professional quality – pixilation, shadows, etc.
- Images should be artsy but not unnatural—effects should never compromise image quality (i.e. avoid effects that create intense sharpening, contrast, strange color casts or overexposure)
- Avoid using similar effects or color palettes consecutively. (The appearance of the main Instagram profile should have rows of thumbnails that have a similar aesthetic but not too uniform.)
- Shoot photos on a DSLR or other high-resolution producing camera whenever possible (as opposed to using a smart phone)

Spacing

- One space (not two) between sentences.

State Names

- Spell out the names of the 50 U.S. states.
- Any state name may be condensed; however, to fit typographical requirements for tabular material.
- The names of eight states are never abbreviated in datelines or text: Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Ohio, Texas and Utah.
- Following are the state abbreviations. ZIP code abbreviations used in mailings are in parentheses:
