Lea Vandergrift (Graduated Summer 2011) was recently appointed as the Assistant Athletic Trainer at Lafayette College.

UPDATE FROM SPRING 2011
NEWSLETTER!

David Sigler (Graduated Summer 2002)

After graduation from MU's Sport Management program, David worked in fundraising for five years at the Virginia Military Institute. After his fifth year he decided it was time to make a career switch and accepted a position in VMI's athletic ticket operations. Following one year as Director of Ticket Operations, he was named Assistant AD for Ticketing and (Internal and External/ Marketing) Operations. He held this position for two years before being named the Associate AD for Compliance and Game Operations. David currently holds this position and is responsible for approximately 95 home athletic events.

David reports that VMI is very small but still fields 18 Division I sports. He has been fortunate to have touched many aspect of DI athletics in a short time.

Those seeking an internship experience are welcome to contact him by e-mail at SiglerDG@vmi.edu.

Allison Kunkel (Graduated Fall 2009)

Allison is currently working for York College of PA as an Adjunct Faculty. Allison's favorite parts of the job are teaching health and wellness classes because, as a former certified athletic trainer, she is passionate about the wellness. She also loves her schedule, which is conducive to her family life with her husband and son Tyler. Her advice for students who want to work in a similar field is to look for graduate assistantships as a teaching assistant to get experience in college teaching.

Andy Loucks (Graduated Fall 2010)

Andy is currently the Head Football Coach, as well as Assistant Athletic Director and a Physical Education Instructor at Kennard- Dale High School in Fawn Grove, PA. His favorite part of the job is working with all the different students , but he said it is also very challenging to balance his responsibilities at work and home. His advice for current students is to figure out what level of athletics you are most interested in and then do everything you can to succeed at that level.

Congratulations on all of these accomplishments!

Alumni Spotlights (2/2)

Becky Allen (Graduated Summer 2010)

What is your current place of work and what is your position?

I am in my first year as a Doctoral student at Indiana University in Bloomington, IN. My PhD will be in Sports Management and Marketing. I am currently serving as an Assistant Instructor and teaching undergraduate courses.

What is the best part of your job?

I am working toward a PhD so that I can teach at the collegiate level one day. It's a great experience furthering my education while also getting experience teaching.

What is the most challenging part of your job?

Time management is definitely the most difficult part of my job. Finding a balance between classes, teaching, research, and other obligations has been really difficult, but they are all very rewarding and worth the running around!

What advice would you give a student who wants to work in a similar field?

If there are individuals who are hoping to continue their education and earn their PhD's, I would recommend getting in early contact with department heads at institutions in which you are interested. The earlier you get to know the faculty, determine the right institution for you, and determine your research goals, the better off you will be.

May current students contact you if they wish to talk more about your career?

Yes, they may e-mail me at reballen@indiana.edu.

If you would like to learn more Lea, David, Andy, Becky or Allison; or if you would like to contact any of them about their positions or for a possible internship; please contact Lauren at sportmgmtga@millersville.edu
