Policy

The University understands that as a public institution of higher education parts of its campus are open to the general public. The University, however, endeavors to provide and maintain a productive, safe, and secure educational, working, and living environment for all members of the University community.

As a condition to access University property, members of the general public assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with University policies, local ordinances, and public laws. A Non-Affiliated Individual may be issued a No Trespass Order excluding the individual from University property if the individual engages in conduct that:

1. Violates a local ordinance, a public law, or a University policy.
2. Is determined to present a threat or danger to University property, self, or any member of the University community.
3. Disrupts the University educational, working, and living environment.
4. Unreasonably disrupts or interferes with the educational, working, and living environment of the University.
5. Gains entry through surreptitious means or breaking and entering.

The following areas are not open to Non-Affiliated Individuals without permission from a University official:

1. Academic/research classrooms and laboratories.
2. University facilities used by faculty, staff, and students, in connection with academic activities or residential living.
3. University buildings used for student residential living.

Any Non-Affiliated Individual who is not authorized to be in any of the aforementioned areas may be issued a Warning, a No Trespass Order, or be subject to arrest for unlawful trespass. Authorized University personnel may provide actual notice of a restriction through direct communication with an individual entering or remaining in an area or building not generally open to the public. While a great deal of campus remains open to the public, the University retains the right to restrict access to property owned or controlled by the University if a person engages in conduct listed above.

Warning – Purpose and Authority to Issue

A warning may be issued to a Non-Affiliated Individual as a notice of a possible violation(s) of University policies, local ordinances, or public law. This warning may be issued by the Chief of Police or any commissioned member of the Police Department or University Official (or designee) and will note the possible consequences of any future violations.

A warning issued to a Non-Affiliated Individual must set forth sufficient facts establishing the violation along with any other pertinent information related to the violation. Warnings may be verbal or written. University officials issuing verbal or written warnings to Non-Affiliated Individuals should report the warning to any commissioned member of the Police Department for documentation of all pertinent information related to the warning. A copy of a written warning should be issued to the individual along with any other applicable documentation. Warnings that are issued to a Non-Affiliated Individual may be used as factual support in the event a No Trespass Order needs to be issued in the future based on a pattern of misconduct. Non-affiliated individuals may be expelled for University property for a period of no more than seventy-two-hour hours without issuing a written No Trespass Order.

No Trespass Order – Purpose and Authority to Issue

A No Trespass Order may be issued when a Non-Affiliated Individual violates this policy. No Trespass Orders may be issued by the Chief of Police or any commissioned member of the Police Department. No Trespass Orders may be issued for a specified area or facility on property owned or controlled by the University or all property owned or controlled by the University, depending on the circumstances. No Trespass Orders may be for a specified period of time or issued as a permanent restriction from access to property owned or controlled by the University.

Appeal Process

A Non-Affiliated Individual who receives a No Trespass Order may appeal the decision to the Office of the Vice President for Finance and Administration. The University’s appeal process is not applicable to any criminal charges, which must be resolved through the appropriate court of jurisdiction.

(1) An appeal of the No Trespass Order must be filed in writing with the Office of the Vice President for Finance and Administration within 10 (ten) business days of the date of service of the No Trespass Order. Written appeals may be hand-delivered or mailed to:
